Tempe encourages residents to ride Orbit to ASU home football games

TEMPE, Ariz.- The city of Tempe transportation program, Tempe in Motion, will make it easy for residents to get to all Arizona State University home football games. Residents who live along any of the four, free Orbit routes (Mercury, Venus, Earth and Jupiter) that directly serve Sun Devil Stadium are encouraged to use the service. Hours of operation on Orbit Mercury, Venus, Earth and Jupiter will be extended until midnight on game days. Residents who do not live along an Orbit route are encouraged to park at the Tempe Library Complex (3500 S. Rural Road) located at the southwest corner of Southern Avenue and Rural Road and take Orbit Jupiter to the game. Below is a list of all ASU home football games and tentative kick-off times:

- Aug. 30 at 7 p.m. – ASU vs. Northern Arizona
- Sept. 6 at 7 p.m. – ASU vs. Stanford
- Sept. 13 at 7 p.m. – ASU vs. UNLV
- Sept. 20 at 5:13 p.m. – ASU vs. Georgia
- Oct. 25 at TBD – ASU vs. Oregon
- Nov. 15 at TBD – ASU vs. Washington St.
- Nov. 28 at 7:30 p.m. – ASU vs. UCLA
