Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch; Correction

RIN 3209-AA04

57 FR 52583

Wednesday, November 4, 1992

_____

ACTION: Final rule correction; correction.

SUMMARY: This document contains one correction to the preamble of the correction document published on Tuesday, October 27, 1992 (57 FR 48557) to the final rule on Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch (see 57 FR 35006-35067 (Aug. 7, 1992)). Due to a typing error, the ``Summary'' section of that correction document referred to the Office of Government Ethics (OGE) rule on ``executive agency ethics training programs'' as the regulation being corrected (see 57 FR 11886-11891 (Apr. 7, 1992), as corrected at 57 FR 15219 (Apr. 27, 1992)). In fact, as correctly identified in the heading and amendatory language of the correction document, the OGE regulation on ``Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch'' (the Standards) was being corrected. This further correction document is being issued to clarify that the Standards regulation was the subject of the correction of October 27, 1992.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 27, 1992.

Approved: October 28, 1992.
Stephen D. Potts,
Director, Office of Government Ethics.

Accordingly, the Office of Government Ethics is correcting the October 27, 1992 publication of the correction to the final rule on Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch, which correction was the subject of FR Doc. 92-25875, as follows:

On page 48557 of the preamble, in the first column, in the fourth and fifth lines of the `Summary' section, the words ``executive agency ethics training programs'' are corrected to read ``Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch''.
