After I identified myself to [redacted] and presented official ID, [redacted] became immediately argumentative and verbally abusive. I attempted to inspect the transport vehicle and animals in the transport vehicle. [redacted] was unwilling to discuss this attempt of an inspection and verbally interfered with my ability to conduct an inspection. [redacted] responded to my suggestion that a crate may be too small with anger and arguments. [redacted] made a veiled threat by stating "if you write me up I will...". However, it was not possible to complete an inspection because of [redacted] anger and verbal abuse. As I left the vehicle, [redacted] continued to yell angrily at me.
