Re: Quantity and Value Questionnaire for Certain Activated Carbon from the People's Republic of China

Dear Sir or Madam:

On March 28, 2006, the Department of Commerce ("the Department") initiated an antidumping duty investigation to determine whether certain activated carbon from the People's Republic of China ("PRC") is being sold in the United States at less than fair value. See Initiation of Antidumping Duty Investigations: Certain Activated Carbon from the People's Republic of China, 71 FR 16757 (April 4, 2006). The period of investigation ("POI") is July 1, 2005 through December 31, 2005.

In advance of the issuance of the antidumping questionnaire, we ask that you respond to the questions in Attachment I requesting information on the quantity and U.S. dollar sales value of all exports to the United States of certain activated carbon during the POI. A definition of the merchandise covered by the scope of this investigation is included in Attachment II. General instructions for responding to this letter are contained in Attachment III. Please be advised that receipt of this letter does not indicate that the recipient manufacturer or exporter will be chosen as a mandatory respondent or guaranteed separate rates status. A response to this letter may be subject to on-site verification by Department officials.

The response to the Department's Quantity and Value ("Q&V") questionnaire in Attachment I is due no later than April 19, 2006.

Please note that all submissions to the Department must be served on all interested parties. The service instructions are included in Attachment III. The list of interested parties may be found at <http://www.ia.ita.doc.gov/apo/apo-svc-lists.html>.

Additionally, the Department recently modified the process by which exporters and producers may obtain separate-rate status in non-market economy ("NME") investigations. This modification now requires NME exporters of certain activated carbon to submit a separate-rate application within 60 calendar days after publication of the Department's initiation notice in addition to responding to this letter. The separate-rate application is available on the Department's website at <http://ia.ita.doc.gov/>. The notice of initiation was published in the Federal Register on April 4, 2006. This change is described in Policy Bulletin 05.1: Separate-

Rates Practice and Application of Combination Rates in Antidumping Investigations involving Non-Market Economy Countries, (April 5, 2005), (“Policy Bulletin 05.1”) available at <http://ia.ita.doc.gov/>.

To receive consideration for a separate rate, your firm must respond to this Q&V questionnaire and respond to the Department’s separate-rate application (available on our website (www.ia.ita.doc.gov)) by the appropriate deadline. This ensures that the Department has the necessary information to appropriately select mandatory respondents. In other words, the Department will not give consideration to any separate rate-status application made by parties that failed to respond to this questionnaire within the established deadline.

We appreciate your attention to these matters. Please contact Catherine Bertrand at 202-482-3207 if you have any questions or comments.

Sincerely,

Carrie Blozy

ATTACHMENT I

Where it is not practicable to examine all known producers/exporters of subject merchandise, section 777A(c)(2) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (as amended) permits us to investigate 1) a sample of exporters, producers, or types of products that is statistically valid based on the information available at the time of selection, or 2) exporters and producers accounting for the largest volume and value of the subject merchandise that can reasonably be examined.

In the chart provided below, please provide the total quantity and total value of all your sales of merchandise covered by the scope of this investigation (see scope section of this notice), produced in the PRC, and exported/shipped to the United States during the period July 1, 2005, through December 31, 2005.

- Please report all sales on the same terms (e.g., free on board).

Total Value:

- All sales values should be reported in U.S. Dollars. Please indicate any exchange rates used and their respective dates and sources.

- Please include any sales exported by your company directly to the United States;
- Please include any sales exported by your company to a third-country market economy reseller where you had knowledge that the merchandise was destined to be resold to the United States.
- If you are a producer of subject merchandise, please include any sales manufactured by your company that were subsequently exported by an affiliated exporter to the United States.
- Please do not include any sales of merchandise manufactured in Hong Kong in your figures.

Constructed Export Price Sales:

- Generally, a U.S. sale is classified as a constructed export price sale when the first sale to an unaffiliated person occurs after importation. However, if the first sale to the unaffiliated person is made by a person in the United States affiliated with the foreign exporter, constructed export price applies even if the sale occurs prior to importation.
- Please include any sales exported by your company directly to the United States;
- Please include any sales exported by your company to a third-country market economy reseller where you had knowledge that the merchandise was destined to be resold to the United States.

Scope of Investigation

The merchandise subject to this investigation is certain activated carbon. Certain activated carbon is a powdered, granular or pelletized carbon product obtained by "activating" with heat and steam various materials containing carbon, including but not limited to coal (including bituminous, lignite and anthracite), wood, coconut shells, olive stones, and peat. The thermal and steam treatments remove organic materials and create an internal pore structure in the carbon material. The producer can also use carbon dioxide gas (CO₂) in place of steam in this process. The vast majority of the internal porosity developed during the high temperature steam (or CO₂ gas) activated process is a direct result of oxidation of a portion of the solid carbon atoms in the raw material, converting them into a gaseous form of carbon.

The scope of this investigation covers all forms of activated carbon that are activated by steam or CO₂, regardless of the raw material, grade, mixture, additives, further washing or post-activation chemical treatment (chemical or water washing, chemical impregnation or other treatment), or product form. Unless specifically excluded, the scope of this investigation covers all physical forms of certain activated carbon, including powdered activated carbon ("PAC"), granular activated carbon ("GAC"), and pelletized activated carbon.

Excluded from the scope of the investigation are chemically-activated carbons. The carbon-based raw material used in the chemical activation process is treated with a strong chemical agent, including but not limited to phosphoric acid, zinc chloride sulfuric acid or potassium hydroxide, that dehydrates molecules in the raw material, and results in the formation of water that is removed from the raw material by moderate heat treatment. The activated carbon created by chemical activation has internal porosity developed primarily due to the action of the chemical dehydration agent. Chemically activated carbons are typically used to activate raw materials with a lignocellulosic component such as cellulose, including wood, sawdust, paper mill waste and peat.

To the extent that an imported activated carbon product is a blend of steam and chemically activated carbons, products containing 50 percent or more steam (or CO₂ gas) activated carbons are within this scope, and those containing more than 50 percent chemically activated carbons are outside this scope.

Also excluded from the scope are reactivated carbons. Reactivated carbons are previously used activated carbons that have had adsorbed materials removed from their pore structure after use through the application of heat, steam and/or chemicals.

Also excluded from the scope is activated carbon cloth. Activated carbon cloth is a woven textile fabric made of or containing activated carbon fibers. It is used in masks and filters and clothing of various types where a woven format is required.

Any activated carbon meeting the physical description of subject merchandise provided above that is not expressly excluded from the scope is included within this scope. The products under investigation are currently classifiable under the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States ("HTSUS") subheading 3802.10.00. Although HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the scope of this investigation is dispositive.

4. File the original and six copies of the proprietary version. However, if you file an electronic copy of the proprietary version in Word Perfect for Windows format or Microsoft Word, you need file only the original version and four copies. In case of any difference between the hardcopy narrative response and the content of the electronic media, the hardcopy narrative response is the controlling version.

File the original and three copies of the public version of your narrative response and attachments, including sample printouts.

5. Submit the required certification of accuracy. Providers of information and the person(s) submitting it, if different (e.g., a legal representative), must certify that they have read the submission and that the information submitted is accurate and complete. The Department cannot accept responses to the letter that do not contain the certification statements. A form for such certification is included at Attachment III(A). You may photocopy this form and submit a completed copy with each of your submissions.
6. The submission must be served on all other persons on the service list and accompanied by a proper certificate of service for this case in accordance with section 351.303(f)(1)-(2) of the Department's regulations, which states:

(1)(i) In General. Except as provided in § 351.202(c) (filing of petition), § 351.207(f)(1) (submission of proposed suspension agreement), and paragraph (f)(3) of this section, a person filing a document with the Department simultaneously must serve a copy of the document on all other persons on the service list by personal service or first class mail.

(ii) Service of public versions or a party's own business proprietary information. Notwithstanding paragraphs (f)(1)(i) and (f)(3) of this section, service of the public version of a document or of the business proprietary version of a document containing only the server's own business proprietary information, on persons on the service list, may be made by facsimile transmission or other electronic transmission process, with the consent of the person to be served.

(2) Certificate of Service. Each document filed with the Department must include a certificate of service listing each person served (including agents), the type of document served, and the date and method of service on each person. The Secretary may refuse to accept any document that is not accompanied by a certificate of service.

This public service list contains the names of parties which have not waived their service rights in the review. When you submit a proprietary document to the Department, you must serve a copy of this document to each party listed on the APO service list. When you submit a public document or a public version of a proprietary document to the Department, you must serve a copy of this document on each party listed on the public service list. In addition, you must provide the Department with a certificate of service that documents that you have served the appropriate documents to the parties on the service lists. A form for such certification is included in Attachment III(B).

The list of interested parties you need to serve with a copy of your minor alteration anticircumvention request, in accordance with 351.225(n), can also be found on our website at: <http://www.ia.ita.doc.gov/apo/apo-svc-lists.html>.

Start at “Active APOs and Service Lists.” Begin your search with the product. Search alphabetically for “activated carbon.” Once you click on “activated carbon,” you will see the People’s Republic of China (A-570-904). You should then click on People’s Republic of China (A-570-904). There will be several options. Select “Investigation” to find the most up-to-date service list.

7. Request proprietary treatment for information submitted that you do not wish to be made publicly available. As a general rule, the Department places all correspondence and submissions received in the course of an antidumping proceeding in a public reading file. However, information deemed to be proprietary information will not be made available to the public. If you wish to make a request for proprietary treatment for particular information, refer to sections 351.304 and 351.304(a)(2) of the Department's regulations. Submit the request for proprietary treatment no later than one business day following the submission of the proprietary version of your response to the letter accompanied by:
 - (1) a non-proprietary (public) version of your response that is in sufficient detail to permit a reasonable understanding of the information submitted in confidence,³ and/or
 - (2) an itemization of particular information that you believe you are unable to summarize. State the reasons why you cannot summarize each piece of information.

Responses, or portions thereof, that are not adequately summarized may be returned to you and not used.

8. Submit the statements required regarding limited release of proprietary information under the provisions of an administrative protective order ("APO"). U.S. law permits limited disclosure to representatives of parties (e.g., legal counsel) of certain business proprietary information, including electronic business proprietary information, under an APO. (Note that data received under an APO cannot be shared with others who are not covered by the APO.) Under the provisions governing APO disclosure, you must submit either:
 - (1) a statement agreeing to permit the release under APO of information submitted by you in confidence during the course of the proceeding, or
 - (2) a statement itemizing those portions of the information which you believe should not be released under APO, together with arguments supporting your objections to that release.

³ Generally, numerical data are adequately summarized if grouped or presented in terms of indices or figures ranged within ten percent of the actual figure. If a particular portion of the data is voluminous, use ranged figures for at least one percent of the voluminous portion.

We are required by our regulations to reject, at the time of filing, submissions of business proprietary information that do not contain one of these statements. You must state in the upper right-hand corner of the cover letter accompanying your response whether you agree or object to release of the submitted information under APO. (See section 351.303)⁴

9. Place brackets ("[...]") around information for which you request business proprietary treatment. Place double brackets ("[[...]]") around information for which you request proprietary treatment and which you do not agree to release under APO.
10. Provide to all parties whose representatives have been granted an APO (as listed in the cover letter or as listed in a subsequent letter from the Department) a complete copy of the submission, proprietary and public versions, except for that information which you do not agree to release under APO. If you exclude information because you do not agree to release it under APO, submit with your response to the Department a certificate of service and a copy of the APO version of the document containing the information that you agree may be released under APO. For parties that do not have access to information under APO, please provide a public version only.
11. Prepare your response in typed form and in English. Repeat the question to which you are responding in your narrative submission and place your answer directly below it.

⁴ If you do not agree to release under APO all or part of the proprietary information, but we determine that the information should be released, you will have the opportunity to withdraw the information (see section 351.340(d) of our regulations). However, any information which you withdraw will be taken out of the official record and will not be used in our determination
