WHO'S WHO IN CIVIL RIGHTS IN KING COUNTY GOVERNMENT

To help you find the civil rights office most appropriate to your needs, we provide this list of King County offices, commissions and committees that deal with civil rights issues.

---

Office of Civil Rights (OCR), Department of Executive Services

Ordinance Enforcement and Education

OCR investigators enforce the county ordinances prohibiting discrimination in:

- fair employment, including private employment in unincorporated King County and King County as an employer
- fair housing, including housing in unincorporated King County
- public accommodations (public services such as restaurants, gas stations and markets in unincorporated King County)
- fair contracting, including private parties contracting in unincorporated King County and King County government in its own contracting.

Members of the community can file complaints alleging discrimination which are investigated and resolved by OCR, which acts as a neutral fact-finder. OCR also offers information and education about nondiscrimination laws.
