ATTACHMENT I
FORMAT FOR REPORTING QUANTITY AND VALUE OF SALES

In providing the information in the chart below, please provide the total quantity in kilograms (and pounds) and total value (in U.S. dollars) of all your sales covered by the scope of this review (see enclosed scope description), produced in the People’s Republic of China (“PRC”), and exported/shipped to the United States during the period December 1, 2005 through November 30, 2006.

Additionally, if you believe that you should be treated as a single entity along with other named exporters, please complete the chart, below, both in the aggregate for all named parties in your group and, in separate charts, individually for each named entity. Please label each chart accordingly.

Market: United States	Total Quantity (In Kilograms)	Total Quantity¹ (In Pounds)	Total Quantity (In Pieces)	Terms of Sale²	Total Value³ ($U.S.)
1. Export Price ⁴
2. Constructed Export Price ⁵
3. Further Manufactured ⁶
Total

Please provide the following information for your company. If you believe that you should be treated as a single entity along with other named exporters, please provide the information requested below both in the aggregate for all named entities in your group and separately for each named entity. Please label each chart accordingly.

¹ Detail any conversion rates used to report quantity in pounds.

² To the extent possible, sales values should be reported based on the same terms (e.g., FOB).

³ Values should be expressed in U.S. dollars. Indicate any exchange rates used and their respective dates and sources.

⁴ Generally, a U.S. sale is classified as an export price sale when the first sale to an unaffiliated person occurs before the goods are imported into the United States.

ATTACHMENT III GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Instructions for Filing the Response

The following instructions apply to all documents you submit to the Department during the course of this proceeding.

1. File your response in Washington, D.C. at:

U.S. Department of Commerce
Import Administration
Dockets Center
Room 1870
Pennsylvania Ave. and Fourteenth Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20230

2. Proprietary versions of the response should be submitted on the day specified in the cover letter. The public version of the response may be filed one business day after the proprietary version. You must provide a copy of the public version of your response to all parties on the public service list for this administrative review, the latest version of which can be found here:
<http://ia.ita.doc.gov/apo/apo-svc-lists.html>

3. File the original and six copies of the proprietary version. However, if you file an electronic copy of the proprietary version in Word Perfect 6.1 (Word Perfect 7.0 and 8.0 are also acceptable), you need file only the original version and four copies. In case of any difference between the narrative response and the content of the electronic media, the narrative response is the controlling version. For either alternative, only one copy of sample printouts and electronic media containing sales files and cost files need be submitted.

File the original and four copies of the public version of your narrative response and attachments, including sample printouts.

4. Submit the required certification of accuracy. Providers of information and the person(s) submitting it, if different (e.g., a legal representative), must certify that they have read the submission and that the information submitted is accurate and complete. The Department cannot accept responses to the letter that do not contain the certification statements. A form for such certification is included in this Appendix. You may photocopy this form and submit a completed copy with each of your submissions.
5. Provide the required certificate of service with each proprietary version and public version submitted to the Department.
6. Request proprietary treatment for information submitted that you do not wish to be made publicly available. As a general rule, the Department places all correspondence and submissions received in the course of an antidumping proceeding in a public reading file. However, information deemed to be proprietary information will not be made available to the public.¹ If you wish to make a request for proprietary treatment for particular information, refer to sections 351.304 and 351.304(a)(2) of the Department's regulations. Submit the request for proprietary treatment no later than one business day following the submission of the proprietary version of your response to the letter accompanied by:

- (1) a non-proprietary (public) version of your response that is in sufficient detail to permit a reasonable understanding of the information submitted in confidence,² and/or
- (2) an itemization of particular information that you believe you are unable to summarize. State the reasons why you cannot summarize each piece of information.

Responses, or portions thereof, that are not adequately summarized may be returned to you and not used.

7. Submit the statements required regarding limited release of proprietary information under the provisions of an administrative protective order (“APO”). U.S. law permits limited disclosure to representatives of parties (e.g., legal counsel) of certain business proprietary information, including electronic business proprietary information, under an APO. (Note that data received under an APO cannot be shared with others who are not covered by the APO.) Under the provisions governing APO disclosure, you must submit either:

- (1) a statement agreeing to permit the release under APO of information submitted by you in confidence during the course of the proceeding, or
- (2) a statement itemizing those portions of the information which you believe should not be released under APO, together with arguments supporting your objections to that release.

We are required by our regulations to reject, at the time of filing, submissions of business proprietary information that do not contain one of these statements. You must state in the upper right-hand corner of the cover letter accompanying your response whether you agree or object to release of the submitted information under APO. (See section 351.303 of our regulations for specific instructions.)³

8. Place brackets (“[...]”) around information for which you request business proprietary treatment. Place double brackets (“[[...]]”) around information for which you request proprietary treatment and which you do not agree to release under APO.
9. Provide to all parties whose representatives have been granted an APO (as listed in the cover letter or as listed in a subsequent letter from the Department) a complete copy of the submission, proprietary and public versions, except for that information which you do not agree to release under APO. A copy of the latest version of the APO service list can be found here: <http://ia.ita.doc.gov/apo/apo-svc-lists.html>. If you exclude information because you do not agree to release it under APO, submit with your response to the Department a certificate of service and a copy of the APO version of the document containing the information that you agree may be released under APO. For parties that do not have access to information under APO, please provide a public version only.
10. Prepare your response in typed form and in English. Repeat the question to which you are responding in your narrative submission and place your answer directly below it.

² Generally, numerical data are adequately summarized if grouped or presented in terms of indices or figures ranged within ten percent of the actual figure. If a particular portion of the data is voluminous, use ranged figures for at least one percent of the voluminous portion.
