

NOAA Ship RONALD H. BROWN B-Roll

Please credit "NOAA" in your Chyron.

For copies: call Video Transfer Inc., (301) 881-0270. For content information: contact broll@noaa.gov

Time Code	Description
1:00:00:00	In Port (Honolulu), preparing for departure Shots of ship docked, several angles. Crew preparing for next departure, loading equipment by crane, hoisting gangplank.
1:02:12:00	Underway 2:12 Leaving port — several shots @ different locations, Honolulu 4:00 Blue Water — shot from RHIB vessel, off Maine 5:51 Arriving to port — advancing slowly to dock, Seattle 7:11 Wide shot of anchored ship in distance, Manchester, N.H.
1:07:23:00	Aboard ship 07:23 Views from uppermost (watch-stander) deck, instrumentation, 09:28 POV shot of Rigid Hull Inflatable Boat (RHIB) being lowered
1:09:57:00	Safety drill 09:57 Muster on stern deck, scientists and crew are briefed 10:17 Man overboard drill (dummy thrown over the side and retrieved via RHIB)
1:11:46:00	Shipboard Operations 11:46 Navigation: then-commanding officer (CAPT Don Dreves) on bridge giving orders, checking chart, making announcement 12:31 SCUBA Divers: team of divers suit up and enter water off RHIB
1:13:33:00	Shipboard Operations 13:33 Engineering: Engineer checks gauges, makes notes 14:14 Maintenance: Crewmembers sand, paint, hose down and wash deck. 15:36 Galley: cooks prepare meal, crew and scientists take food from bins
1:16:13:00	Scientific Work Scientists at work during the New England Air Quality Study, 2002 More info about this study at www.al.noaa.gov/NEAQS/ Air sampling instruments installed on bow, scientists retrieving samples, taking readings, making adjustments to equipment, releasing weather balloons with instruments attached, working with liquid nitrogen, working in laboratory, on computers, working with samples in clean room, attending meeting (MOS)
1:23:25:00	Open Ocean Shots of ocean taken from deck of ship. Sunrise, midday, sunset, adverse weather (rain and lightning), high seas
1:25:48:00	NOAA logo