half (1/2) the annual fee if such permit is obtained after November thirtieth.

C. Any person who commenced any work for which a permit is required by this code without first having obtained such permit, shall upon subsequent application for such permit pay double the fee fixed by the above schedule of fees for such work unless it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the health officer that such work was urgently necessary and that it was not practical to obtain a permit prior the commencement of the work. In all such emergency cases, a permit shall be obtained as soon as it is practical to do so, and if there is an unreasonable delay in obtaining such permit, a double fee shall be charged as provided in this section.

D. Where, based on such evidence as he or she may require, the director of health finds that granting a variance from these regulations will not impair the public health and safety, he or she may grant same. The fee for review of the variance request will be three hundred dollars ($300.00).

SECTION 2. Effective date. This amendment shall take effect on January 7, 2002.

Adopted this 7th day of December, 2001.
