INSPECTOR GENERAL AUDITORS

The National Security Agency's (NSA) Office of the Inspector General has openings for Auditors in the Office of Audits to conduct/assist in performance audits of Agency programs, activities, organizations, functions, funds, and nonprofit organizations.

The ideal candidate should possess a Bachelor's degree in Accounting or related field, and a minimum of 2-6 years of experience, and demonstrated knowledge in performing audits or related analytic studies of programs and operations to accomplish planned objectives. Qualifications may include:

-Knowledge of financial management, procurement practices, logistics processes; and enterprise management.
-Experience in presenting facts, conclusions, and recommendations concisely, accurately, and clearly in a written format.
-Ability to work well as part of a team of auditors, management analysts, functional specialists, and investigators in planning and conducting audits and reviews.
- Exceptional oral and written communications skills.
-Knowledge of Acquisition Management.
-Knowledge of the information systems life cycle, system architecture; telecommunications or database management systems.
-Knowledge of and hands on use of analytic tools such as Statistical Analysis System.
-Certified Public Account (CPA), Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA), or Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act certification.

To submit your resume, please visit www.nsa.gov/careers and click on Job Search/Apply Online, then View Job Postings and select the "Legal" job category.

U.S. Citizenship is required for all applicants. Reasonable accommodations provided to applicants with disabilities during the application and hiring process where appropriate. NSA is an equal opportunity employer and abides by applicable employment laws and regulations.