

(INA) (8 U.S.C. 1182(n) and (t) and 1184(c)). The Department of Labor (Department) and the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) have promulgated regulations to implement the INA. Specifically for this collection, Title 20 CFR 655 Subparts H and I and Title 8 CFR 214.2(h)(4) are applicable. The INA mandates that no alien may enter the United States for the purpose of performing professional work on a temporary basis unless the U.S. employer has attested to the Secretary of Labor that the working conditions for the alien will be identical to those of other U.S. workers, that the salary will equal either the prevailing wage in the area of employment or match that being paid others in the employer's business—whichever is higher; that there is no strike or lockout at the employer's facility; and that the employer has met all other requirements of the program as specified in the regulations.

II. Review Focus

The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

III. Current Actions

In order to meet its statutory responsibilities under the INA, the Department needs to extend an existing collection of information pertaining to employers seeking to apply for labor condition applications to allow them to bring foreign labor to the United States on a temporary basis. Extensive program experience has demonstrated the need for further clarification on this information collection.

In the past the respondents have been for-profit businesses and not-for-profit institutions. On rare occasions the respondents have been local, state, tribal governments, or the federal government.

The Secretary of Labor uses the collected information to determine if employers are meeting their statutory and regulatory obligations.

The modifications being proposed to ETA Form 9035, 9035CP, and 9035E are primarily due to the elimination of the "Fax Back" system and converting exclusively to the electronic submission system except in rare cases of physical disability that prevents use of a computer. All three forms needed to be updated to eliminate all reference to the "Fax Back" system and provide more clarity to the user of the form, thereby obtaining more accurate information for the Department to assist in more efficient and effective adjudication of the requested benefit. The information collected remains the same.

ACTION: 60-day notice of information collection under review: Labor Certification for the Temporary Employment of Nonimmigrant Aliens in Agriculture in the United States; Administrative Measures to Improve Program Performance, OMB Control No. 1205-0404.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, is conducting a pre-clearance consultation to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) [44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)]. This consultation is undertaken to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently, the Employment and Training Administration is soliciting comments concerning the measures to improve program performance in the labor certification program for temporary employment of nonimmigrant aliens in agriculture in the United States. A copy of the proposed information collection request (ICR) can be obtained by contacting the office listed below in the addressee section of this notice or at this Web site: <http://www.doleta.gov/OMBCN/OMBControlNumber.cfm>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background: The information collection is required by 20 CFR 655.103(e) and 655.106(e)(1)(ii). The Department of Labor mandates that employers who have received certification for temporary foreign agricultural labor inform their local State Workforce Agency in writing if the foreign (H-2A) workers do not depart for the place of employment three days prior to the date of need as specified in their certified applications for such foreign labor. The departure date is used to start the running of the contract period for administration of the Fifty-percent Rule. Section 103(e) provides that the employer must continue to provide employment to any qualified and eligible U.S. worker who applies to the employer until 50 percent of the work contract period, under which the foreign worker is in the job, has elapsed. The employer's obligation to engage in positive recruitment ends on the date the foreign workers depart for the employer's place of business. The notification required under the regulations is written by the employer and sent to the SWA. The SWA uses the information to calculate the end of active recruitment requirements and Fifty-percent Rule referral requirements.
