¹ Elected March 12, 1873, and March 26, 1873 (special session of the Senate); December 11, 1873; December 23, 1874.

² Elected January 25, 1875, and February 15, 1875.

³ Reelected December 1, 1873.

⁴ Reelected December 1, 1873.

⁵ Appeared on March 6, 1873, to take oath of office, having presented credentials in the preceding Congress; objection was made, as a memorial was on file from Francis W. Sykes, claiming the seat; on March 7, 1873, a motion to refer the credentials and memorial to the Committee on Privileges and Elections was not agreed to, and Mr. Spencer was permitted to qualify; December 8, 1873, the memorial of Mr. Sykes was referred, and April 20, 1874, the committee, upon its motion, was discharged from further consideration thereof.

⁶ Credentials as Member-elect, together with notice of contest by Lucien C. Gause, were presented and referred to Committee on Elections on December 2, 1873; the House adopted resolution reported by committee that Mr. Hodges was entitled prima facie to the seat without prejudice to the right of Mr. Gause to contest; took his seat February 4, 1874; the Committee reported unfavorably on the contest.

⁷ Election unsuccessfully contested by Marcus L. Bell.

on recommendation of the committee he was seated on February 18, 1874; served until June 16, 1874, when the House decided that Mr. Gunter was entitled to the seat.

⁹ Successfully contested the election of William W. Wilshire, and took his seat June 16, 1874.

¹⁰ Resigned November 29, 1873.

¹¹ Elected to fill vacancy caused by resignation of Eugene Casserly, and took his seat February 9, 1874.

¹² Died February 5, 1875.

¹³ Appointed to fill vacancy caused by death of William A. Buckingham, and took his seat February 5, 1875.
