^{CDA}[6.This Part shall apply to any measure of a selfregulatory organization whose mandate is conferred by the Party, or by its state, provincial or local governments.]

ADDITIONAL CANADIAN EQUIVALENCES

[From Canadian Protocol, Part 2: SPECIFIC COMMITMENTS AND EXCEPTIONS

1.Notwithstanding any provision of the Agreement, Article 2005 of the Canadian-United States Trade Agreement shall continue to apply as between Canada and the United States.]

INVEST.221

An identical provision is included in the Canadian draft of the U.S. Protocol.

^{CDA}[Article 111: General Exceptions

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent the adoption or enforcement by any Party of measures:

(a) necessary to protect public order, safety or public morals;

(b) necessary to protect human, animal or plant life or health or the environment in its territory, or to enforce generally agreed international environmental or conservation rules or standards;

(c) relating to the products or services of prison labor;

(d) imposed for the protection of national treasures of artistic, historic or archaeological value;

(e) necessary for fiduciary or consumer protection reasons;

(f) necessary to secure compliance with laws or regulations which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, including those relating to the avoidance of fraudulent or deceptive practices;

provided that such measure is:

(g) consistent with Article 106; and

(h) is the least trade-restrictive necessary for securing the protection required.]

^{CDA}[Article 106: Nullification and Impairment of Benefits

1. No measure shall be implemented or applied by any Party in a manner that would:

(a) constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination between its goods, services and service providers, investors and suppliers and those of any other Party;

(b) ...

(c) otherwise nullify or impair any benefit reasonably expected to accrue to one or more of the other Parties, directly or indirectly, under this Agreement.]

NOTE: Language on the environment may be provided for this chapter and / or generically.

EXISTING LEGISLATION

^{CDA} [Existing Legislation

Notwithstanding Article 103, paragraph 1 (Extent of Obligations), except in respect of Part 2 (Border Impediments to Free Trade) and as otherwise provided herein the obligations of this Agreement shall not apply to:

- a) a non-conforming provision of any existing measure;
- b) the continuation or prompt renewal of a non-conforming provision of any existing measure; or
- c) an amendment to a non-conforming provision of any existing measure to the extent that the amendment does not decrease its conformity with the obligations of this Agreement].

2. ...

3. With the approval of all other Parties, a Party may maintain limited exceptions to the obligations of (paragraph concerning nondiscriminatory treatment) provided that any exception to national treatment, other than in the maritime sector, shall not be a greater departure from such obligations than required by or specified in domestic law in force on the date of signature of this Agreement. In the event that the relevant domestic law is liberalized to conform more closely to the obligations of (such paragraphs), it may not thereafter be made more restrictive. Where a Party takes an exception to national treatment it shall nonetheless accord most favored nation treatment unless specified otherwise in Annex A. A brief description of all exceptions and the laws on which they are based shall be set forth in Annex A.]

TREATMENT OF INVESTMENTS

^{MEX}[Article 2102: National Treatment

Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, each Party shall grant to investors of the other Parties treatment no less favorable than that granted in like circumstances to its investors with respect to measures affecting:]

^{USA}[Article XX01: Establishment and Treatment of Investment

1. Each Party shall accord nondiscriminatory treatment¹ to an investor of another Party in the establishment, acquisition, expansion, management, conduct, operation and sale or other disposition of investments in its territory, including business enterprise controlled by such investor]

^{CDA}[Article 105: National Treatment

1. Each Party shall accord to the goods, services and service providers, investors and suppliers of the other Parties treatment no less favorable than that accorded to its own like goods, services and service providers, investors and suppliers in respect of all matters covered by this Agreement, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement.]

^{CDA}[Article 108: Most Favored Nation Treatment

Subject to the specific exceptions listed in a Party's instrument of ratification or accession, each Party shall, immediately and unconditionally, accord to the goods, services and service providers, investors and suppliers of all other Parties treatment no less favorable than that accorded by it to the like goods, services and service providers, investors and suppliers of any other country or international entity, whether or not that country or entity is a Party to this Agreement, in respect of all matters covered by this Agreement.]

^{USA} ^{CDA}[1. ^{USA}[In particular,] ^{CDA}[Further to Article 105 and for grater certainty] no Party shall

2. The Parties are excepted from the obligations of this Article as set forth in Annexes 2102.1 and 2102.2.]

^{MEX}[Article 1310: Emergency Safeguard Measures

1. If, as a result of the reduction or elimination of a restriction provided for in this Chapter, or in the Sectoral Chapters, a service is being imported into the territory of a Party or produced within its territory by providers of another Party in such increased quantities, and under such conditions, as to constitute a substantial cause of serious injury to domestic industry providing a like or directly competitive service, the Party may, to the extent directly necessary to remedy the injury:

(b) limit the establishment in its territory of providers of such service not already established there; and

(c)

2. The following conditions and limitations shall apply to an action taken pursuant to paragraph 1....]

OTHER TREATMENT PROVISIONS

^{MEX USA}[1. Investments of investors of a Party in the territory of another Party shall at all times be accorded fair and equitable treatment, ^{MEX} [and] shall enjoy full protection and security] ^{USA} [and shall in no case be accorded treatment less than that required by international law.]

^{USA CDA}[2. Without prejudice to paragraph 4, investors of a Party whose investments suffer losses in the territory of another Party owing to war or other civil strife shall be accorded at least nondiscriminatory treatment by such other Party as regards any measures it adopts in relation to such losses.]

^{MEX USA}[3. A Party shall not require that entities which are legally constituted under the applicable laws or regulations of one Party, and which are investments of investors of another Party, engage as top managerial personnel individuals of any particular nationality.]

4. Each Party shall provide investors of another Party with an effective means of asserting claims and enforcing rights with respect to investments, ^{USA}[investment agreements, and investment authorizations.]

ADDITIONAL CANADIAN COMMENT AND EQUIVALENCES

Derogations from MFN treatment are provided in the Protocols of the Canadian draft. For example:

SPECIFIC COMMITMENTS AND EXCEPTIONS

^{CDA}[2. Regarding Article 108 of the Agreement, the most-favoured-nation treatment set out therein shall not apply to:

- (a) bilateral air agreements to which Canada is a party;
- (b) maritime cabotage regulations providing a Commonwealth preference;
- (c) Canada-United States reciprocal salvage rights;]
- (d) (to be negotiated)

9. The most favored nation obligations of this Chapter shall not apply to advantages accorded by a Party by virtue of the Party's binding obligations under any multilateral international agreement under the framework of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

^{USA MEX}[11. Each Party reserves the right to deny to an entity of another Party the advantages of this Chapter if:

- a) nationals of any non Party own or control such entity and such entity has no substantial business activities in the territory of the Party under whose laws it is constituted;] ^{USA}[or
- b) such entity is owned or controlled by nationals of a non Party with which the denying Party does not maintain normal economic relations.]

^{CDA}[Article 403: Specific Exceptions

INVEST.221

1. Subject to prior notification and consultation in accordance with Part 6, a Party may deny the benefits of this Part to investors or service providers if it establishes that they originate from a country which is not a Party to this Agreement.

2. The Party denying benefits pursuant to paragraph 1 shall have the burden of establishing that such action is in accordance with that paragraph.]

PROVINCIAL AND STATE MEASURES

^{USA}[Article XX11: Application to Subdivisions

2. The treatment accorded by a Party
- a) under Article XX01.1 with respect to nationals and companies of another Party; and
 - b) under Article XX02.2 with respect to the investments (and associated activities of those nationals and companies)

shall, in any state or political subdivision, be no less favorable than the treatment accorded by such state or political subdivision to its residents, or companies legally constituted under its laws, or their investments in its territory.]

2. The provisions of this Article shall mean, with respect to measures of a province or state, treatment no less favorable than the most favorable treatment accorded by such province or state to any like goods, services and service providers, investors and suppliers, as the case may be, of the Party of which it forms a part.]

INVEST.221

PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENTS

1. ^{MEX}[Except as provided in Annex____,] no Party shall ^{USA}[apply] ^{MEX CDA}[impose] ^{MEX USA}[, or condition the receipt of an incentive on,] any of the following requirements in connection with the establishment, acquisition, expansion, conduct or operation of investments in its territory of investors of ^{USA}[a Party or a non-Party] ^{CDA MEX}[another Party]:

a) achieve a given level or percentage of domestic content; substitute domestic goods or services for imported goods or services; or otherwise favor the purchase or use of goods or services of domestic origin or from domestic sources;

b) relate in any way the volume or value of imports to the volume or value of exports or to the amount of foreign exchange inflows associated with such investment;

c) restrict domestic sales of goods or services that such investment produces by limiting such sales in any way to volume or value of its exports or foreign exchange earnings;

^{USA MEX}[d) transfer, import or use a particular technology, production process or other proprietary knowledge; or]

^{USA MEX}[e) act as the exclusive supplier of the goods or services it produces to a specific market or region].

^{USA}[With respect to paragraph 1(a), benefits associated with government procurement or export promotion programs shall not be considered "incentives".]

2. No Party shall require, in connection with the establishment, acquisition, expansion, conduct or operation of investments in its territory of an investor of ^{USA}[a Party or a non-Party] ^{MEX CDA}[another Party], that such investment export a given level or percentage of goods or services.

^{MEX CDA}[3. No Party shall prohibit or otherwise restrict an investor established in the territory of another Party from:

a) exporting goods and services from such territory to a non-party country;

- b) importing to such territory goods and services from a non-party country; or
- c) using goods and services originating in a non-party country.]

^{MEX} ^{CDA}[4. For purposes of this Article, a Party "impose" a requirement on an investor when it requires ^{MEX}[as a matter of law,] particular action ^{MEX}[or omission] of an investor ^{CDA}[or when, after the date of the entry into force of this Agreement for that Party, it enforces any undertaking or commitment described in this Part given to that Party after the date this Agreement enters into force for that Party.]]

^{CDA}[5. Further to Article 106 (Nullification and Impairment), no Party shall impose on an investor of a nonParty, as a term or condition of permitting an investment in its territory, or in connection with the regulation of the conduct or operation of a business enterprise located in its territory, a commitment to meet any of the requirements described in paragraph 1 where meeting such a requirement could have a significant impact on trade between two or more of the Parties.]

^{CDA}[6. Nothing in this Part shall prevent a Party from imposing requirements on an investor of another Party in connection with the grant of a subsidy to such investor.]

^{MEX} ^{CDA}[7. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent a Party from imposing requirements on an investor of another Party in respect of activities not listed in paragraph 1.]

^{MEX}[SCREENING, AUTHORIZATION AND] MONITORING

^{MEX}[1. A Party may maintain screening and authorization procedures for investments as set forth in Annex 2102.2.]

2. Notwithstanding Article (on national treatment), a Party may require an investor of another Party ^{MEX USA}[or its investments] ^{CDA}[or a service provider of another Party] to submit to it routine information ^{MEX USA}[respecting such investment] solely for information or statistical purposes. Such Party shall protect such business information that is confidential from disclosure that would prejudice the investor's competitive position.

3. Nothing in paragraph 1 shall preclude a Party from otherwise obtaining or disclosing information in connection with the equitable and good faith application of its laws.

TRANSFERS

1. Subject to paragraph 3 ^{MEX CDA}[and paragraphs 4 and 5] a Party shall permit all transfers and international payments (hereinafter "transfers") relating to an investment in ^{CDA}[or provision of a service in or into] its territory of an investor ^{CDA}[or service provider] of another Party to be made freely and without delay. Such transfers include:

(a) profits, dividends, interest, capital gains, royalty payments, management, technical assistance and other fees, ^{USA MEX}[returns in kind,] and other amounts derived from an investment ^{CDA}[or service];

(b) proceeds from the sale of all or any part of an investment ^{CDA}[or service] or from the partial or complete liquidation of an investment ^{CDA}[or service];

(c) payments made under a contract entered into by an investor, ^{USA}[or investment,] ^{CDA}[or service provider], including payments made pursuant to a loan agreement;

(d) compensation pursuant to {Article on expropriation}; and

(e) payments arising out of an investment dispute ^{USA}[as defined in {Article on dispute settlement}.]

^{USA}[2. Except as provided in paragraph 2 of {Article on expropriation} and] subject to paragraph 3, a Party shall permit transfers to be made in a freely usable currency at the market rate of exchange prevailing on the date of transfer with respect to spot transactions in the currency to be transferred.

3. A Party may, through the equitable and good faith application of its laws, prevent any transfer referred to in paragraph 1 if such transfer is inconsistent with any measure of general application relating to:

^{CDA}[(a) restrictions applied by a Party to persons of another aParty on the making of payments and transfers for current international transactions which conform with Article VIII of the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund;]

NOTE: The foregoing Canada proposal reiterates which one change in syntax Canda Art.505 because Canada Art. 406 states that the obligation not to prevent transfers is subject to Art. 505.

(b) bankruptcy, insolvency or the protection of the rights of creditors;

(c) ^{MEX CDA}[issuing, trading or dealing in securities];

NOTE: US is checking with its regulatory authorities to ascertain whether such an exception is necessary or whether securities matters are adequately covered by the other subparagraphs.

(d) criminal or penal offenses;

(e) reports of currency transfers;

(f) imposing ^{USA}[income] taxes by such means as a withholding tax ^{USA}[applicable to dividends or other transfers;] or

(g) ensuring the satisfaction of judgments in adjudicatory proceedings.

4. ^{MEX CDA}[No Party shall require its investors to repatriate, or penalize its investors who fail to repatriate, the income, earnings or profits attributable to any investment in another Party or to any businesses carried on in another Party either directly by the investors or indirectly through a business enterprise established in that other Party.]

5. ^{MEX CDA}[Paragraph 4 shall not be construed as preventing a Party from taxing its investors on their share of any income, earnings or profits attributable to a business carried on or an investment made in another Party, provided that the tax so charged does not exceed the tax that would be so charged if such income, earnings or profits were repatriated, without any further tax on the repatriation, to its investors.]

STATE ENTERPRISES

^{CDA}[Article 410: State Enterprises

Each Party shall ensure that state enterprises engaged in non-regulated commercial activities in competition with private enterprises:

(a) be subject to domestic competition law and policies in respect of such activities; and

(b) be given the same treatment under domestic competition law and policies as such private enterprises in respect of such activities.]

^{US}[1. The provisions of this Chapter, and in particular the obligation to accord nondiscriminatory treatment to investments in the territory of a Party of investors of another Party, shall apply to the state enterprise of a Party.

2. Further to Article (concerning nondiscriminatory treatment), where a state enterprise of a Party is in competition, within the territory of such Party, with an investment of an investor of another Party, and where there are no other investments of investors of that Party which are not state enterprises in competition with the state enterprise, that Party shall accord the investment of the investor of the other Party treatment no less favorable than that which it provides its state enterprise. Where investments of investors of that Party which are not state enterprises also compete with the state enterprise, the investment of the investor of the other Party shall be accorded treatment no less favorable than that provided such other investments.]

EXPROPRIATION AND COMPENSATION

1. No Party shall directly or indirectly nationalize or expropriate an investment of an investor of another Party in its territory or take any measure or series of measures tantamount to expropriation or nationalization of such an investment ^{USA} ^{CDA}["expropriation"], except:

- (a) for a public purpose;
- (b) on a nondiscriminatory basis;
- (c) in accordance with due process of law ^{USA}[and the general principles of treatment provided for in Article ----]; and
- (d) upon payment of ^{USA, CDA}[prompt, adequate and effective] compensation.

2. Compensation shall be equivalent to the fair market value of the expropriated investment immediately before the expropriatory action was taken or became known, whichever is earlier. Valuation criteria shall include going concern value, asset value (including declared tax value of tangible property), and other criteria, as appropriate to determine fair market value. Compensation shall be paid without delay; include interest at a commercially reasonable rate from the date of expropriation; be fully realizable; and be freely transferable at the prevailing market rate of exchange on the date of ^{USA}[expropriation.] ^{MEX CDA}[transfer].

NOTE: Mexico considers that the concerns expressed by the U.S. and Canada delegations on compensation are covered by the new draft proposal on paragraph 2. On that basis Mexico will only accept this paragraph if the U.S. and Canada delegations drop the actual bracketed text in paragraph 1(c) and (d).

DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

^{MEX}[Article 2108: Disputes

Disputes arising from the interpretation and application of this Chapter shall not be subject to the dispute settlement provisions of this Agreement.]

CANADA ADDITIONAL EQUIVALENCES

(From Canadian Protocol, Part 2: Specific Commitments and Exceptions):

[22. Notwithstanding anything in the Agreement, the provisions of Part 6 shall not apply to any Decision by Canada following a review under the Investment Canada Act, with respect to whether or not to permit an acquisition that is subject to review.]

^{USA}[Article XX07: Settlement of Disputes between a Party and a National or Company of Another Party

1. For purposes of this Article, an investment dispute is a dispute between a Party and a national or company of another Party arising out of or relating to (a) an investment agreement between that Party and such national or company; (b) an investment authorization granted by that Party's foreign investment authority (if any such authorization exists) to such national or company; or (c) an alleged breach of any right conferred or created by this Chapter with respect to an investment.

2. In the event of an investment dispute, the parties to the dispute should initially seek a resolution through consultation and negotiation. If the dispute cannot be settled amicably, the national or company concerned may choose to submit the dispute for resolution:

- a) to the courts or administrative tribunals of the Party that is a party to the dispute;
- b) in accordance with any applicable previously agreed dispute settlement procedures; or
- c) in accordance with the terms of paragraph 3.

3. a) Provided that the national or company concerned has not submitted the dispute for resolution under paragraph 2 (a) or (b) and that six months have elapsed from the date on which the dispute arose, the national or company concerned may choose to consent in writing to the submission of the dispute for settlement by binding arbitration:

i) to the International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes ("Centre") established by the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States, done at Washington, March 18, 1965 ("ICSID Convention"), provided that the Party is a party to such Convention;

ii) to the Additional Facility of the Centre, if the Centre is not available;

iii) in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law; or

iv) to any other arbitration institution, or in accordance with any other arbitration rules, as may be mutually agreed between the parties to the dispute.

b) Once the national or company concerned has so consented, either party to the dispute may initiate arbitration in accordance with the choice so specified in the consent.

4. Each Party hereby consents to the submission of any investment dispute for settlement by binding arbitration in accordance with the choice specified in the written consent of the national or company under paragraph 3. Such consent, together with the written consent of the national or company when given under paragraph 3, shall satisfy the requirement for:

a) written consent of the parties to the dispute for purposes of Chapter II of the ICSID Convention (Jurisdiction of the Centre) and for purposes of the Additional Facility Rules; and

b) an "agreement in writing" for purposes of Article II of the United Nations Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards, done at New York, June 10, 1958 ("New York Convention").

5. Any arbitration under paragraph 3(a)(ii), (iii) or (iv) of this Article shall be held in a state that is a party to New York Convention.

6. Any arbitral award resulting from an arbitration under paragraphs 3(a)(ii), (iii) or (iv) of this Article shall be final and binding on the parties to the dispute. Each Party undertakes to carry out without delay the provisions of any such award and to provide in its territory for its enforcement.

7. In any proceeding involving an investment dispute, a Party shall not assert, as a defense, counterclaim, right of set off or otherwise, that the national or company concerned has received or will receive, pursuant to an insurance or guarantee contract, indemnification or other compensation for all or part of its alleged damages.

8. For purposes of an arbitration held under paragraph 3 of this Article, any company legally constituted under the applicable laws and regulations of a Party or a political subdivision thereof but that, immediately before the occurrence of the event or events giving rise to the dispute, was an investment of nationals or companies of another Party, shall be treated as a national or company of such other Party, including in accordance with Article 25(2)(b) of the ICSID Convention.]

^{USA}[Article XX08: Settlement of Disputes Between Parties

1. Any dispute between Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Chapter which is not resolved through consultations or other diplomatic channels, shall be submitted, upon the request of a Party, for binding decision in accordance with the applicable rules of international law to an arbitral tribunal composed of three arbitrators.

2. In the absence of an agreement by the Parties to the contrary, the arbitration rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) shall apply. The appointing authority referenced in those rules shall be the Secretary General of the Centre.

3. Fees and expenses of the arbitrators and appointing authority, and other costs of the proceedings, shall be borne equally by the Parties. Each Party shall bear the cost of its legal representation.]

NATIONAL SECURITY

^{MEX}[Article 2109: National Security

A Party may deny the application of this Chapter to investors of the other Parties for reasons of national security.]

^{USA}[Article XX09: Public Order and National Security

Nothing in this Chapter shall preclude the application by a Party of measures necessary for the maintenance of public order, the fulfilment of its obligations under the United Nations Charter with respect to the maintenance or restoration of international peace or security, or the protection of its own essential security interests.]

[Note: This provision is selfjudging.]

^{CDA}[Article 110: National Security

1. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed:

a) to prevent any Party from refusing to furnish or allow access to any information the disclosure of which it determines to be contrary to its essential security interests;

b) to prevent any Party from imposing any measure which it determines is directly related and essential to:

i) supplying a military establishment of a Party with arms, ammunition or implements of war, or enabling fulfilment of a critical defence contract of a Party;

ii) responding to a situation of armed conflict involving the Party taking the measure;

iii) implementing international agreements relating to the nonproliferation of nuclear, chemical or biological weapons, other nuclear explosive devices, or chemical or biological agents;

iv) responding to direct threats of disruption in the supply of nuclear materials for defence purposes.

(c) to prevent any Party from taking measures in pursuance of its obligations under the United Nations Charter for the maintenance of international peace and security.

2. Any determination made under paragraph 1(b) shall be published promptly in the official journal of that Party.

3. The Party refusing to furnish or allow access to any information under paragraph 1(a) or imposing any measure under paragraphs 1(b) or (c) shall ensure that such action constitutes the means that least infringes on the rights and reasonable expectations of the Parties under this Agreement and is no broader in scope or duration than necessary.

4. Except in cases of emergency, the Party proposing to take any measure under paragraphs 1(b) or (c) shall consult with the other Parties prior to taking such measure, and in any event shall consult upon request in accordance with the provisions of Part 6.]

TAXATION

^{USA}[Article XX10: Taxation

Issues of nondiscrimination arising under Article XX01 of this Chapter and involving taxation shall be resolved under the criteria and procedures of the convention for the avoidance of double taxation between the Parties involved.]

^{CDA}[Article 112: Taxation

1. Subject to Article 106 and except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement shall affect the right of any Party to adopt or maintain any taxation measure.

2. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect:

(a) the right of any Party to adopt or maintain any measure designed to prevent the avoidance of tax by producers, service providers, investors and suppliers of any other Party or to impose nonresident withholding taxes on payments made to producers, service providers, investors and suppliers of any other Party; or

(b) rights and obligations under any international taxation agreement, as may be specified in a Party's instrument of ratification or accession.]

EXTRA-TERRITORIALITY

^{CDA}[Article 407: Extra-territoriality

2. No Party may prescribe new laws or enforce existing laws so as to require investors or service providers to act, in the territory of another Party, in a manner that conflicts with the laws of such other Party.]

MONOPOLIES

^{CDA}[Article 408: Monopolies

1. Subject to Article 106, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent a Party from maintaining or designating a monopoly.
2. A Party maintaining or designating a monopoly shall ensure that the monopoly will not, in providing the monopoly goods or service in the relevant market, behave in a manner which could nullify or impair benefits to which producers or service providers of any other Party is entitled.
3. Prior to designating a monopoly, a Party shall:
 - a) notify the other Parties;
 - b) upon request, engage in consultations; and
 - c) endeavour to minimize or eliminate any nullification or impairment of benefits under this Agreement that might otherwise be caused by the designation.
4. Each Party shall ensure that, where it permits the monopoly supply of goods or services, the monopoly does not in its territory, either directly or through an affiliated company engage in anti-competitive practices in areas outside its monopoly.]

TECHNOLOGY CONSORTIA

^{CDA}[Article 409: Technology Consortia

No Party may enact or apply any measure in respect of participation in or treatment of any combination, consortium, or other group of business enterprises including respecting access to technology, in a manner that would violate Article 105 or Article 106.]

COMPETITION POLICY

^{CDA}[Article 411: Competition

1. The Parties recognize the contribution that competition laws and policies can make to the fulfilment of the object and purpose of this Agreement.

2. To that end, each Party agrees to:

a) enact and enforce, within [] years of the entry into force of this Agreement for that Party, transparent competition laws, policies and procedures consistent with the governing principles of this Agreement, that have as their objective the control of anti-competitive agreements, mergers, monopolies, pricing practices and abuse of dominant position; and

b) pursue negotiations with the other Parties to expand and enhance international agreements and arrangements for mutual legal assistance, notification, consultation, and exchange of information relating to the enforcement of competition laws and policies in the free trade area.

3. In the enforcement of their respective competition laws and policies in those cases involving persons, assets, or practices located, or occurring, in the territory of any other Party, each Party shall, upon request, advise such other Party of the results of its assessment of the following factors:

a) the relative significance of the anti-competitive activities involved and of conduct within the enforcing Party's territory as compared to conduct within such other Party's territory;

b) the presence or absence of a purpose on the part of those engaged in the anti-competitive activities to affect consumers, suppliers, or competitors within the enforcing Party's territory;

c) the related significance of the effects of the enforcement activities on the enforcing Party's interests as compared to the effects on the other Party's interests;

d) the existence or absence of reasonable expectations that would be furthered or defeated by the enforcement activities;

e) the degree of conflict or consistency between the enforcement activities and the other Party's law or articulated economic policies; and

f) the extent to which enforcement activities of such other Party with respect to the same persons, including judgments or undertakings resulting from such activities, may be affected.

4. The Commission shall establish a Competition Policy Committee to consider and make recommendations [no later than] on:

a) the impact of competition law and policy on trade within the free trade area;

b) the impact of trade law and regulation on competition within the free trade area; and

c) the potential for reliance on competition laws and policies to discipline anti-competitive transborder pricing practices and market segmentation.]
