

The Foreign Trade Regulations and Mandatory
Automated Export System (AES)
Filing Requirements Are Here!!!!!!

Brownsville, TX
Town Hall Meeting

The Foreign Trade Division (FTD) is sponsoring Free Town Hall Meetings in Brownsville, TX. The U.S. Census Bureau experts will carefully explain the changes from the Foreign Trade Statistics Regulations to the new Foreign Trade Regulations to help the trade community understand the new reporting requirements so they can avoid significant new penalties for noncompliance.

Note: Meetings and workshops are free to the public. The workshops are for paper filers only; companies not registered to file via AES. Participants will need to register for the meetings and workshops. In addition, companies must register at www.aesdirect.gov for the free internet application, AESDirect for submitting electronic export information. After completing your registration, you will receive a username and password. Bring the username and password to the workshop so you can complete the quiz and become certified.
