AESDirect

AESDirect is the Census Bureau's FREE Internet-based system for filing Shipper's Export Declaration (SED) information to the Automated Export System (AES).

AESDirect provides all filers the opportunity to file their SED transactions electronically to the AES.

AESDirect harnesses the power of the Internet to file export information to the AES.

AESDirect provides interactive and batch filing.

AESPcLink

A FREE self-installing CD-ROM or downloadable file for preparing Shipper's Export Declaration data offline on the AES*Direct* user's PC.

AESPcLink provides

- Offline data entry on the user's PC.
- Offline validation of data on the user's PC.
- Offline creation of data entry templates.
- Batch submission to AES*Direct*.

AESDirect

FREE ACCESS and USE

"We sponsor AES*Direct* to make export reporting fast and easy for any exporter or forwarder."

> C. Harvey Monk, Jr. Chief, Foreign Trade Division U.S. Census Bureau

AESWebLink

AESWebLink allows the user to pass data from other applications (Bill of Lading, Air Waybill, Shipper's Letter of Instruction, Invoices, etc.) to AESDirect.

AESWebLink prompts the user to complete the reporting of required data elements when the user's application does not provide the information, thus meeting your requirement for filing Shipper's Export Declaration information.

AESWebLink streamlines export data reporting and information flow and reduces double entry of data.
