Re: Comments On Behalf Of Columbian Home Products, LLC Regarding Timing of Assessment Instructions For Antidumping Duty Orders
Involving Non-Market Economy Countries -- 70 Fed. Reg. 35634
(June 21, 2005)

Dear Mr. Spetrini:

On behalf of Columbian Home Products, LLC ("Columbian"), we respectfully submit these comments in response to the Department's June 21, 2005 request for comments concerning the timing of assessment instructions in antidumping duty proceedings involving non-market economy ("NME") countries. Columbian supports and incorporates herein by reference the comments being filed today by the Committee to Support U.S. Trade Laws ("CSUSTL").

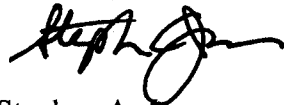

The Department's continuing failure to issue automatic liquidation instructions to Customs in the pending administrative review of the order on porcelain-on-steel cooking ware from China (A-570-506) is unlawful.¹ Colombian respectfully requests that the Department resolve this issue as quickly as possible in order to prevent any further delay in the liquidation of entries and potential irreparable harm to Colombian.

Please contact me if you have any questions about Colombian's position.

Respectfully submitted,

Stephen A. Jones
