SUBJECT: Addition of Citizen Grandparents and Citizen Legal Guardians as Eligible
Applicants pursuant to INA 322

Public Law 107-273, 21st Century Department of Justice Appropriations Authorization Act, was signed into law on November 2, 2002. One of the immigration related changes made by this legislation is the addition of U.S. citizen grandparents and U.S. citizen legal guardians as eligible to apply for naturalization on behalf of a child born and residing outside the United States pursuant to INA 322. This law is now in effect and should be followed for adjudications of any application pursuant to INA 322 filed on or after November 2, 2002. Districts must ensure that procedures are in place to accept immediate filing of applications for citizenship pursuant to these amendments.

Under this amended provision, application by the U.S. citizen grandparent or U.S. citizen legal guardian can be made within 5 years of the death of a U.S. citizen parent of a child who could otherwise have been the beneficiary of an application pursuant to INA 322.

Subject: Addition of Citizen Grandparents and Citizen Legal Guardians as eligible Applicants
Pursuant to INA 322

The law does not authorize applications pursuant to INA 322 by any person other than a U.S. citizen parent except in cases in which a U.S. citizen parent has died.

Any U.S. citizen grandparent or duly appointed U.S. citizen legal guardian can file an N-600 (or N-600K) on behalf of an eligible child whose U.S. citizen parent has died during the preceding five years. In such cases, the enabling physical presence requirement can be met only by either::

- A) The citizen parent by the time of the parent's death, or
- B) A citizen parent of the citizen parent by the time of the citizen parent's death.

If the physical presence of the citizen parent of a dead citizen is used to fulfill the physical presence requirement of INA 322, the citizen parent of the dead citizen parent must have still been alive at the time of the citizen parent's death. Once this requirement has been met, any U.S. citizen grandparent or duly appointed U.S. citizen legal guardian can file an N-600 (or N-600K) on behalf of an eligible child whose U.S. citizen parent has died during the preceding five years.

Although the cutoff date for applications pursuant to 322 filed by a citizen grandparent or by a citizen legal guardian is five years after the death of the citizen parent, the joint interview of the applicant and the child beneficiary can be conducted at any Immigration Office in the United States that conducts these interviews at any time while the child is still under the age of eighteen years.

These are the only changes that this statute makes regarding Certificates of Citizenship. The child remains eligible only if the child resides outside the USA. However, the U.S. citizen grandparent or the U.S. legal guardian can reside in the USA or outside the USA.
