

2007 Instructions for Schedule 2 (Form 1040A)

Child and Dependent Care Expenses for Form 1040A Filers

If you paid someone to care for your child or other qualifying person so you (and your spouse if filing a joint return) could work or look for work in 2007, you may be able to take the credit for child and dependent care expenses. You (and your spouse if filing a joint return) must have earned income to take the credit. (See the instructions for line 5.) If you can take the credit, use Schedule 2 to figure the amount of your credit.

If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) received any dependent care benefits for 2007, you must use Schedule 2 to figure the amount, if any, of the benefits you may exclude from your income on Form 1040A, line 7. You must complete Part III of Schedule 2 before you can figure the credit, if any, in Part II.

Additional information. See Pub. 503 for more details.

What's New

New definition of earned income. When you figure your credit for child and dependent care expenses, your earned income no longer includes employee compensation that is nontaxable. However, you can elect to include any nontaxable combat pay in earned income to figure the credit.

Part-time work and temporary absences from work. You may be able to figure your credit using expenses for care while you were temporarily absent from work or working part-time.

Definitions

Dependent care benefits

Dependent care benefits include:

- Amounts your employer paid directly to either you or your care provider for the care of your qualifying person(s) while you worked,
- The fair market value of care in a daycare facility provided or sponsored by your employer, and
- Pre-tax contributions you made under a dependent care flexible spending arrangement (FSA).

Your salary may have been reduced to pay for these benefits. If you received dependent care benefits as an employee, they should be shown in box 10 of your 2007 Form(s) W-2.

Qualifying person(s). A qualifying person is:

- A qualifying child under age 13 whom you can claim as a dependent. If the child turned 13 during the year, the child is a qualifying person for the part of the year he or she was under age 13.
- Your disabled spouse who is not physically or mentally able to care for himself or herself.
- Any disabled person who is not physically or mentally able to care for himself or herself whom you can claim as a dependent (or could claim as a dependent except that the person had gross income of $3,400 or more or filed a joint return.)
- Any disabled person who is not physically or mentally able to care for himself or herself whom you could claim as a dependent except that you (or your spouse if filing a joint return), could be claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's 2007 return.

If you are divorced or separated, see Special rule for children of divorced or separated parents on this page.

To find out who is a qualifying child and who is a dependent, see Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information.

To be a qualifying person, the person must have lived with you for more than half of 2007.

Special rule for children of divorced or separated parents. Even if you cannot claim your child as a dependent, he or she is treated as your qualifying person if:

- The child was under age 13 or was physically or mentally not able to care for himself or herself, and
- You were the child's custodial parent (the parent with whom the child lived for the greater part of 2007).

The noncustodial parent cannot treat the child as a qualifying person even if that parent is entitled to claim the child as a dependent under the special rules for a child of divorced or separated parents.

Qualified expenses. These include amounts paid for household services and care of the qualifying person while you worked or looked for work. Child support payments are not qualified expenses. Also, expenses reimbursed by a state social service agency are not qualified expenses unless you included the reimbursement in your income.

Generally, if you worked or actively looked for work during only a part of the period in which you incurred the expenses, you must figure your expenses for each day. However, there are special rules for temporary absences or part-time work. See Pub. 503 for details.

Household services. These are services needed to care for the qualifying person as well as to run the home. They include, for example, the services of a cook, maid, babysitter, housekeeper, or cleaning person if the services were partly for the care of the qualifying person. Do not include services of a chauffeur or gardener.

You can also include your share of the employment taxes paid on wages for qualifying child and dependent care services.

Care of the qualifying person. Care includes the cost of services for the qualifying person's well-being and protection. It does not include the cost of clothing or entertainment.

You can include the cost of care provided outside your home for your dependent under age 13 or any other qualifying person who regularly spends at least 8 hours a day in your home. If the care was provided by a dependent care center, the center must meet all applicable state and local regulations. A dependent care center is a place that provides care for more than six persons (other than persons who live there) and receives a fee, payment, or grant for providing services for any of those persons, even if the center is not run for profit.

You can include amounts paid for items other than the care of your child (such as food and schooling) only if the items are incidental to the care of the child and cannot be separated from the total cost. But do not include the cost of schooling for a child in kindergarten or above. You can include the cost of a day camp, even if it specializes in a particular activity, such as soccer. But, do not include any expenses for sending your child to an overnight camp, summer school, or a tutoring program.

Medical expenses. Some disabled spouse and dependent care expenses may qualify as medical expenses if you itemize deductions. But you must use Form 1040. However, you cannot claim the same expense as both a dependent care expense and a medical expense. See Pub. 502 and Pub. 503 for details.

Who Can Take the Credit or Exclude Dependent Care Benefits?

You can take the credit or the exclusion if all five of the following apply.

1. Your filing status is single, head of household, qualifying widow(er), or married filing jointly. But see Married persons filing separate returns below.
2. The care was provided so you (and your spouse if filing a joint return) could work or look for work. However, if you did not find a job and have no earned income for the year, you cannot take the credit or the exclusion. But if your spouse was a student or disabled, see the instructions for line 5.
3. The care was for one or more qualifying persons.
4. The person who provided the care was not your spouse, the parent of your qualifying child under age 13, or a person whom you can claim as a dependent. If your child provided the care, he or she must have been age 19 or older by the end of 2007.
5. You report the required information about the care provider on line 1 and, if taking the credit, the information about the qualifying person on line 2.

Married persons filing separate returns. If your filing status is married filing separately and all of the following apply, you are considered unmarried for purposes of figuring the credit and the exclusion on Schedule 2.

- You lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 2007.
- The qualifying person lived in your home more than half of 2007.
- You provided over half the cost of keeping up your home.

If you meet all the requirements to be treated as unmarried and meet items 2 through 5 listed earlier, you can take the credit or the exclusion. If you do not meet all the requirements to be treated as unmarried, you cannot take the credit. However, you can take the exclusion if you meet items 2 through 5.

Part I Persons or Organizations Who Provided the Care

Line 1

Complete columns (a) through (d) for each person or organization that provided the care. You can use Form W-10 or any other source listed in its instructions to get the information from the care provider. If you do not give correct or complete information, your credit (and exclusion, if applicable) may be disallowed unless you can show you used due diligence in trying to get the required information. If you have more than two care providers, attach a statement to your return with the required information. Be sure to put your name and social security number (SSN) on the statement. Also, enter "See Attached" right above the Caution under line 1.

Due diligence. You can show a serious and earnest effort (due diligence) to get the information by keeping in your records a Form W-10 completed by the care provider. Or you may keep one of the other sources of information listed in the instructions for Form W-10. If the provider does not give you the information, complete the entries you can on line 1. For example, enter the provider's name and address. Enter "See Attached Statement" in the columns for which you do not have the information. Then, attach a statement to your return explaining that the provider did not give you the information you requested.

Columns (a) and (b). Enter the care provider's name and address. If you were covered by your employer's dependent care plan and your employer furnished the care (either at your workplace or by hiring a care provider), enter your employer's name in column (a). Next, enter "See W-2" in column (b). Then, leave columns (c) and (d) blank. But if your employer paid a third party (not hired by your employer) on your behalf to provide the care, you must give information on the third party in columns (a) through (d).

Column (c). If the care provider is an individual, enter his or her social security number (SSN). Otherwise, enter the provider's employer identification number (EIN). If the provider is a tax-exempt organization, enter "Tax-Exempt."

Column (d). Enter the total amount you actually paid in 2007 to the care provider. Also, include amounts your employer paid to a third party on your behalf. It does not matter when the expenses were incurred. Do not reduce this amount by any reimbursement you received.

Part II Credit for Child and Dependent Care Expenses

Line 2

Complete columns (a) through (c) for each qualifying person. If you have more than two qualifying persons, attach a statement to your return with the required information. Be sure to put your name and social security number (SSN) on the statement. Also, enter "See Attached" in the space to the left of line 3.

Column (a). Enter each qualifying person's name.

Column (b). You must enter the qualifying person's SSN. Be sure the name and SSN entered agree with the person's social security card. Otherwise, at the time we process your return, we may reduce or disallow your credit. If the person was born and died in 2007 and did not have an SSN, enter "Died" in column (b) and attach a copy of the person's birth certificate. To find out how to get an SSN, see Social Security Number (SSN) on page 15 of the Form 1040A instructions. If the name or SSN on the person's social security card is not correct, call the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213.

Column (c). Enter the qualified expenses you incurred and paid in 2007 for the person listed in column (a). Prepaid expenses are treated as paid in the year the care is provided. Do not include in column (c) qualified expenses:

- You incurred in 2007 but did not pay until 2008. You may be able to use these expenses to increase your 2008 credit.
- You incurred in 2006 but did not pay until 2007. Instead, see the instructions for line 9.
- You prepaid in 2007 for care to be provided in 2008. These expenses can only be used to figure your 2008 credit.

If you paid qualified expenses for the care of two or more qualifying persons, the $6,000 limit does not need to be divided equally. For example, if you incurred and paid $2,500 of qualifying expenses for the care of one qualifying person and $3,500 for the care of another qualifying person, you can use the total, $6,000, to figure the credit.

Line 4

If filing a joint return, figure your and your spouse's earned income separately. Enter your earned income on line 4 and your spouse's earned income on line 5. If your spouse was a student or disabled, see the instructions for line 5.

Earned income for figuring the credit includes the following amounts.

1. The amount shown on Form 1040A, line 7, minus (a) any amount included for a scholarship or fellowship grant that was not reported to you on a Form W-2, (b) any amount paid to an inmate in a penal institution for work, and (c) any amount received as a pension or annuity from a nonqualified deferred compensation plan or a nongovernmental section 457(b) plan. This amount may be reported in box 11 of your Form W-2. If you received such an amount but box 11 is blank, contact your employer for the amount received as a pension or annuity.

2. Nontaxable combat pay, if you elect to include it in earned income. However, including this income will only give you a larger credit if your (or your spouse's) other earned income is less than the amount entered on line 3. To make the election, include all of your nontaxable combat pay in the amount you enter on line 4 (line 5 for your spouse if married filing jointly). If you are filing a joint return and both you and your spouse received nontaxable combat pay, you can each make your own election. The amount of your nontaxable combat pay should be shown in box 12 of your Form(s) W-2 with code Q.

You can choose to include your nontaxable combat pay in earned income when figuring your credit, even if you choose not to include it in earned income for the earned income credit (EIC) or the exclusion or deduction for child and dependent care benefits.

Special Situations

If you are filing a joint return, disregard community property laws. If your spouse died in 2007, see Pub. 503. If your spouse was a student or disabled in 2007, see the instructions for line 5.

Line 5

Spouse who was a student or disabled. Your spouse was a student if he or she was enrolled as a full-time student at a school during any 5 months of 2007. A school does not include an on-the-job training course, correspondence school, or a school offering courses only through the Internet. Your spouse was disabled if he or she was not physically or mentally capable of self-care. Figure your spouse's earned income on a monthly basis.

For each month or part of a month your spouse was a student or disabled, he or she is considered to have worked and earned income. His or her earned income for each month is considered to be at least $250 ($500 if more than one qualifying person was cared for in 2007). If your spouse also worked during that month, use the higher of $250 (or $500) or his or her actual earned income for that month. If, in the same month, both you and your spouse were either students or disabled, only one of you can be treated as having earned income in that month.

For any month that your spouse was not a student or disabled, use your spouse's actual earned income if he or she worked during the month.

Line 9

Credit for prior year's expenses. If you had qualified expenses for 2006 that you did not pay until 2007, you may be able to increase the amount of your 2007 credit. To figure the credit, see the worksheet under Amount of Credit in Pub. 503. If you can take a credit for your 2006 expenses, enter the amount of the credit and "CPYE" in the space to the left of line 9. Also, enter the name and social security number of the person for whom you paid the prior year's expenses next to this amount. Then, add the credit to the amount on line 9 and replace the amount on line 9 with that total. Also, attach a statement showing how you figured the credit.

Part III Dependent Care Benefits

Line 13

If you had an employer-provided dependent care plan, your employer may have permitted you to carry forward any unused amount from 2006 to use during a grace period in 2007. Enter on line 13 the amount you carried forward and used in 2007 during the grace period.

Line 14

If you had an employer-provided dependent care plan, enter on line 14 the total of the following amounts included on line 12.

- Any amount you forfeited. You forfeited an amount if you did not receive it because you did not incur the expense. Do not include amounts you expect to receive at a future date.
- Any amount you did not receive but are permitted by your employer to carry forward and use in the following year during a grace period.

Example. Under your employer's dependent care plan, you chose to have your employer set aside $5,000 to cover your 2007 dependent care expenses. The $5,000 is shown in box 10 of your Form W-2. In 2007, you incurred and were reimbursed for $4,950 of qualified expenses. You would enter $5,000 on line 12 and $50, the amount forfeited, on line 14. You would also enter $50 on line 14 if, instead of forfeiting the amount, your employer permitted you to carry the $50 forward to use during the grace period in 2008.

Line 15

Add the amounts on lines 12 and 13 and subtract from that total, the amount on line 14. Enter the result on line 15.

Line 16

Enter the total of all qualified expenses incurred in 2007 for the care of your qualifying person(s). It does not matter when the expenses were paid.

Example. You received $2,000 in cash under your employer's dependent care plan for 2007. The $2,000 is shown in box 10 of your Form W-2. Only $900 of qualified expenses were incurred in 2007 for the care of your 5-year-old dependent child. You would enter $2,000 on line 12 and $900 on line 16.

Line 18

If filing a joint return, figure your and your spouse's earned income separately. Enter your earned income on line 18 and your spouse's earned income on line 19. If your filing status is married filing separately or your spouse is a student or disabled, see the instructions for line 19.

Earned income for figuring the amount of dependent care benefits you are able to exclude from your income includes the following amounts.

1. The amount shown on Form 1040A, line 7, minus (a) any amount included for a scholarship or fellowship grant that was not reported to you on a Form W-2, (b) any amount paid to an inmate in a penal institution for work, and (c) any amount received as a pension or annuity from a nonqualified deferred compensation plan or a nongovernmental section 457(b) plan. This amount may be reported in box 11 of your Form W-2. If you received such an amount but box 11 is blank, contact your employer for the amount received as a pension or annuity.

2. Nontaxable combat pay if you elect to include it in earned income. However, including this income will only give you a larger exclusion if your (or your spouse's) other earned income is less than the amount entered on line 17. To make the election, include all of your nontaxable combat pay in the amount you enter on line 18 (line 19 for your spouse if filing jointly). If you are filing a joint return and both you and your spouse received nontaxable combat pay, you can each make your own election. The amount of your nontaxable combat pay should be shown in box 12 of Form(s) W-2 with code Q.

You can choose to include your nontaxable combat pay in earned income when figuring your exclusion or deduction, even if you choose not to include it in earned income for the earned income credit (EIC) or the credit for child and dependent care expenses.

For purposes of line 18, earned income does not include any dependent care benefits shown on line 12.

Special Situations

If you are filing a joint return, disregard community property laws. If your spouse died in 2007, see Pub. 503. If your spouse was a student or disabled in 2007, see the instructions for line 5.

Line 19

If your filing status is married filing separately, see Married persons filing separate returns on page 2. Are you considered unmarried under that rule?

- Yes. Enter your earned income (from line 18) on line 19. On line 21, enter the smaller of the amount from line 20 or $5,000.
  - No. Enter your spouse's earned income on line 19. If your spouse was a student or disabled in 2007, see the instructions for line 5. On line 21, enter the smaller of the amount from line 20 or $2,500.
