Cotton Sweaters—Category 345

October 1998

Import Situation and Conclusion

U.S. imports of cotton sweaters, Category 345, from Cambodia surged to 53,001 dozen during the year ending July 1998, over 200 times the 249 dozen imported during the year ending July 1997. There were no imports from Cambodia in 1996. Imports from Cambodia were 1.6 percent of total U.S. imports of Category 345 in the year ending July 1998, and were equivalent to 2.3 percent of U.S. production of Category 345 in 1997.

U.S. imports of cotton sweaters, Category 345, from Cambodia entered the U.S. at an average landed duty-paid value of $57.26 per dozen during the first seven months of 1998, 62 percent below the average landed duty-paid value for all cotton sweater imports into the U.S., and 68 percent below the average U.S. producers' price for cotton sweaters.

The sharp and substantial increase of low-valued Category 345 imports from Cambodia threatens to cause disruption to the U.S. cotton sweater market and to the orderly flow of trade in these products.

U.S. Production, Import Penetration, and Market Share

U.S. production of cotton sweaters, Category 345, declined in 1997 falling to 2,290,000 dozen, 18 percent below the 1996 production level. Imports of Category 345 increased from 2,368,553 dozen in 1996 to 2,862,748 dozen in 1997, a 21 percent increase. Imports continued to increase reaching 3,322,066 dozen in the year ending July 1998, 30 percent above the same period a year earlier.

The ratio of imports to domestic production increased from 85 percent in 1996 to 125 percent in 1997. The domestic manufacturers' share of the U.S. market for cotton sweaters dropped 10 percentage points, falling to 41 percent in 1997.
