ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

LOUIS R. TRUJILLO CENSURED

Administrative Law Judge Jerome K. Soffer issued an initial decision censuring Louis R. Trujillo, presently administrative manager for the Northwest Region of Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, for his failure to reasonably supervise the activities of Victor G. Matl, an account executive in the San Francisco office of Merrill Lynch at a time when Trujillo was the administrative manager of that office. Previously, as a result of settlement offers, Matl was found to have violated the antifraud provisions of these securities laws and was barred from association with a broker-dealer, and Merrill Lynch and Robert Fisher, the then San Francisco office manager, were sanctioned for their failure to supervise Matl.

Judge Soffer found that although Trujillo for the most part carried out his duties in a reasonably satisfactory manner, there were also deficiencies in his supervision of Matl, justifying the imposition of the censure.

NASD ACTION AGAINST MARK JAMES HANKOFF MODIFIED

The Commission reduced the sanctions imposed by the NASD on Mark James Hankoff, of Beverly Hills, California, to censure, a $5,000 fine, and a four-month suspension from association with any NASD member in a principal capacity, with the requirement that Hankoff requalify as a principal by examination. Hankoff was president of Western Pacific Securities, Inc., a former NASD member firm.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that Hankoff was responsible for his firm's failure to comply with net capital, customer protection, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements in June 1983. However, the Commission set aside the NASD's findings that Hankoff was responsible for his firm's back office violations in February and March 1983. It found that, during the earlier period, Hankoff reasonably relied on his firm's financial principal for compliance with applicable regulatory requirements. In May 1983, however, Hankoff became aware that his firm had serious back office problems. The Commission accordingly concluded that his claimed reliance on his firm's financial principal thereafter was unjustified, making Hankoff responsible for the June violations.

In reducing the sanctions imposed by the NASD, the Commission stressed the fact that it had set aside a substantial number of the NASD's findings of violation.

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

RECEIVER APPOINTED, FINAL JUDGMENT ENTERED AGAINST CHARLES PHILLIP ELLIOTT, OTHERS; TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND FREEZE OF ASSETS ENTERED AGAINST WILLIAM H. MELHORN AND EUGENE BURNELL GARRETT

The Atlanta Regional and Miami Branch Offices announced that on March 31 U.S. District Judge William M. Hoeveler, Southern District of Florida, appointed a receiver for, and entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction by consent, against Charles Phillip Elliott (Elliott), Elliott doing business as Elliott Enterprises, Elliott Mortgage Company, Inc., and Elliott Securities, Inc. Elliott resides, and the entities have offices, in Naples, Florida. Elliott Securities is a registered broker-dealer.

The Final Judgment enjoins the defendants from violating the antifraud and registration provisions of the securities laws and requires them to file an accounting and disgorge an amount to be determined later. The Court also entered a Temporary Restraining Order against William H. Melhorn and Eugene Burnell Garrett, the chief executive officer and a manager, respectively, of Elliott Enterprises.

The March 31 complaint alleges that the defendants sold unregistered securities, operated an unregistered broker-dealer, and obtained funds by, among other misrepresentations and omissions, failing to disclose that securities pledged as collateral for investors' funds were being rehypothecated. The complaint further alleges that defendants obtained at least $50 million from at least 1,000 investors. (SEC v. Charles Phillip Elliott, et al., Civil Action No. 87-12012-CIV-HOEVELER, SDFL). (LR-11408)
