DECISIONS IN ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

LASALLE STREET CAPITAL - ATLANTA/LASALLE MERGER APPLICATION APPROVED. The SEC today announced a decision under the Investment Company Act of 1940 granting the application of LaSalle Street Capital Corporation ("LaSalle"), of Chicago, a registered small business investment company, for an exemption order permitting its proposed merger with Atlanta/LaSalle Corporation ("Atlanta"), whose principal asset consists of 86% of the stock of Atlanta Braves, Inc., which owns and operates the Atlanta Braves National League baseball franchise.

Under the proposed merger plan, Atlanta would be the surviving company, and each share of LaSalle common stock would be converted into one share of Atlanta common stock, so that the present shareholders of Atlanta would own about 51% of the outstanding shares of the combined company and the present shareholders of LaSalle the remaining 49%. It is proposed that following the merger LaSalle's small business investments and its small business investment company license will be transferred to a wholly owned subsidiary, LSC Corporation, which would continue LaSalle's small business investment company activities. The new merged company would hold the balance of LaSalle's assets, mostly marketable securities, and the Braves Inc. stock, and it plans to acquire other operating companies.

The opinion recited that the market value of LaSalle's investments as determined by its board of directors was 8,362,000 as of March 31, 1970 and $7,389,000 as of March 31, 1971. As to Atlanta, it was noted that $10,000,000 ad been paid in 1968 by two expansion teams in the National League for a franchise and limited roster of players, and testimony in the record was that the Atlanta Braves as an established club with a large exclusive territory would have a substantially higher value for merger purposes. The Commission did not consider it necessary and it did not undertake to make a precise determination of the value of the Braves. Recognizing the unique nature of a major league baseball franchise, and taking into consideration all of the evidence, including the testimony that the merger will be advantageous to the stockholders of both companies, the Commission concluded that the terms of the proposed merger are reasonable and fair and do not involve any overreaching and are consistent with the policies of the companies and the general purposes of the Act, within the exemptive standards of the Act. ALBERT A. HANS SUSPENDED. The SEC has ordered, effective August 23, 1971, that Albert A. Hans, of Brooklyn, N.Y., a broker-dealer registered under the Securities Exchange Act, be suspended from association with any broker or dealer for a period of 20 business days, for his failure to file a required financial report for 1969. Hans submitted an offer of settlement in which he consented to a finding of violation and to the suspension. (Release 34-9295)

COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

SEC ORDER CITES ANALYTICAL INVESTMENT DECISIONS SYSTEMS. The SEC has ordered administrative proceedings against Analytical Investment Decisions Systems, Inc., d/b/a AIDS, of Bellevue, Wash., Gerald H. Wright & Co., Robert E. Bronson III, Vergil A. Counter, Gerald H. Wright and Robert T. Putnam pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 based on violations of the Commission's provisions lating to investment advisor registration, investment advisory contracts and advertisements and violations of Commission's anti-fraud provisions.

The order alleges that AIDS, sided and abetted by Wright & Co., Bronson, Counter, Wright and Putnam failed to register as an investment advisor as required by the Investment Advisors Act of 1940, and entered into investment advisory contracts which contrary to the provisions of that Act provided for compensation to AIDS based upon the capital appreciation of the funds of its clients. The order further alleged the respondents published advertisements about AIDS which contained testimonials, referred to specific past recommendations by AIDS without setting forth the additional information required by law, and used deceptive and misleading advertising techniques. Also such advertisements were in violation of AIDS' obligation to use restraint and balance, and contained various wisleading statements and omissions.

A hearing will be held to take evidence on whether the Commission should postpone the effective date of AIDS registration until the final determination of the issues raised in the proceedings. Thereafter a hearing will be held to take evidence upon the staff allegations contained in the order and to afford the respondents an opportunity to offer any defenses and to determine if the allegations are true, and if whether any remedial action should be ordered by the Commission.

SEC ORDER CITES THOMAS LOVE NORTH. The SEC has ordered administrative proceedings pursuant to the Investment Advisors Act of 1940 against Thomas Love North d/b/a North's Newsletter and Special Reports (Registrant) of Tiburon, Calif. based on allegations of violations of the anti-fraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the advertising, anti-freud and bookkeeping provisions of the Investment Advisors Act of 1940.

The order alleges that Thomas Love North d/b/a North's Newsletter and Special Reports published articles describing securities which although not purporting to offer such securities for sale failed to fully disclose consideration received from the issuers of such securities; also Registrant did not engage in independent investigations of companies represented, but published information provided to it by principals of the companies described
