FOR RELEASE August 27, 1971

DECISION IN ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING

HERBERT L. WITTO, JOHN F. COUGHENOUR SANCTIONED. The Commission has issued an opinion in which it found that Herbert L. Wittow, doing business as Wittow & Company, and John F. Coughenour, both of Denver, Colo., had violated provisions of the Federal securities acts in connection with unrelated transactions in stock of Worldwide Energy Company, Ltd., and imposed suspensions on them of 14 days and 7 days, respectively.

Wittow's transactions were effected pursuant to a customer's order to sell Worldwide shares as agent and at specified prices or better. The Commission found that in executing the order, however, Wittow sold at prices which were below prevailing market prices, and that he thereby participated, together with another broker-dealer with whom the underpriced sale procedures were arranged and carried out, in a fraudulent scheme in violation of the antifraud provisions.

Coughenour, the Commission found, sold unregistered shares of Worldwide for a person who had acquired a block of such shares as partial consideration for his sale of properties to a corporation which controlled Worldwide and was under a common control with it, and who was therefore a statutory underwriter of the shares. According to the opinion, Coughenour did not make reasonable inquiry into the facts relating to the saleability of the shares without registration, and his transactions were violative of Section 5 of the Securities Act.
