COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

NOTICE TO FILERS

This is a reminder that there have been recent legislative and regulatory changes that reduced or eliminated filing fees that the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) collects. Those changes are as follows:

1. Effective October 1, 1996, the fee rate on filings made pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Securities Act of 1933 was set at 1/33rd of one percent of the aggregate offering amount. The previous fee rate had been 1/29th of one percent of the aggregate offering amount.
2. Effective October 7, 1996, the SEC eliminated the user fees previously adopted under the Independent Offices Appropriations Act of 1952 (IOAA). These IOAA fees were included in various rules under the securities laws.
3. Effective October 11, 1996, the minimum fee of $100 on 6(b) filings was eliminated. The fee required for these filings will be the actual result of the calculation of 1/33 of one percent of the aggregate offering amount.

You may request in writing a refund: (1) of the difference between 1/29th and 1/33rd of one percent of the aggregate offering amount if you submitted Section 6(b) fees at 1/29th of one percent of the aggregate offering amount for registration statements received by the Commission on or after October 1, 1996; (2) if you submitted a filing fee for a filing that was previously subject to IOAA fees that was received by the Commission on or after October 7, 1996; and/or (3) of the difference between $100 and 1/33rd of one percent of the aggregate offering amount if you submitted payment to meet the $100 minimum on 6(b) filings on or after October 11, 1996.

If your fee was paid by check, please include in your written request a copy of the front and back of the canceled check showing the SEC's bank endorsement. The address for requesting refunds, or for submitting any other fee-related question, is as follows:

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

JOSEPH BARBATO SANCTIONED FOR VIOLATING THE ANTIFRAUD PROVISIONS OF THE FEDERAL SECURITIES LAWS

An administrative law judge today sanctioned Joseph J. Barbato, a former registered representative and branch manager for Stuart-James Co., Inc., for violating the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. Administrative Law Judge Burton S. Kolko barred Mr. Barbato from being associated with a broker or dealer and from participating in an offering of penny stock, and he ordered that Mr. Barbato cease and desist from committing or causing violations or future violations of the antifraud provisions and that he disgorge $623,020, plus prejudgment interest.

After a hearing and consideration of the record, Judge Kolko found that Mr. Barbato improperly made predictions of specific and substantial increases in the price of speculative securities; made material misrepresentations and omitted to state material information about the securities he was recommending; made recommendations about securities that were unsuitable to the customer receiving the recommendations in light of the risks involved in investing in the securities; and willfully caused trading in customer accounts he controlled which was excessive and unsuitable in light of those customers' investment objectives and the character of those accounts. (Initial Decision No. 101)

CEASE-AND-DESIST ORDER ENTERED AGAINST ATLANTIS GROUP, INC. (f/k/a MICROTERRA, INC.), RICHARD FOX AND JAMES SIDBURY

The Commission has entered a cease-and-desist order (Order) pursuant to Section 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) by consent against Atlantis Group, Inc. (formerly known as Microterra, Inc. and referred to herein as Microterra), Richard Fox (Fox) of Delray Beach, Florida, Microterra's former chief executive officer, and James E. Sidbury (Sidbury) of Sarasota, Florida, Microterra's former chief financial officer. The Order finds that during its fiscal years 1991 through 1993, Microterra, through Fox and Sidbury, improperly accounted for the value of certain licenses, equipment and patents on its balance sheets included in its Forms 10-K and Forms 10-Q, resulting in a material overstatement of the value of Microterra's total assets over the three year period. The Order finds that during the same period, Fox and Sidbury caused Microterra to fail to make and keep books and records which accurately reflected its financial and accounting transactions, and that Fox and Sidbury falsified books and records, and misstated or withheld material information from Microterra's independent accountant in connection with the audit of Microterra's financial statements for the period ended December 31, 1991. (Rel. 34-37932)

FINAL JUDGMENTS ENTERED IN SEC v. KENDALL SQUARE, ET AL.

On October 31, the Honorable Mark L. Wolf, United States District Judge, entered a Final Judgment against defendant Peter Appleton Jones in the matter of SEC v. Kendall Square, et al. Appleton Jones was the highest ranking sales executive of Kendall Square, a Massachusetts-based manufacturer of high performance computer systems that was liquidated earlier this year in a bankruptcy proceeding. The complaint, filed on April 29, 1996, alleged that Appleton Jones and the other defendants violated the anti-fraud and other provisions of the federal securities laws, by, among other things, causing Kendall Square to issue materially false and misleading financial statements for fiscal year 1992 and the first two quarters of 1993. In addition, the complaint alleged that Appleton Jones sold Kendall Square stock while in possession of material nonpublic information regarding the Company's true financial condition.

The Final Judgment permanently enjoins Appleton Jones from violating all of the provisions of the federal securities laws the Commission's complaint alleged that he violated, bars him from acting as an officer or director of any public company for a period of ten years and orders Appleton Jones to pay a total of $321,526, representing disgorgement of losses avoided through his sale of Kendall Square common stock and prejudgment interest thereon, but waiving payment of all but $40,000 of that amount based on Appleton Jones' demonstrated inability to pay a greater amount. Appleton Jones consented to the entry of the Final Judgment, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint.

The two other individual defendants named in the complaint, Henry Burkhardt III, Kendall Square's former president and chief executive officer, and Karl G. Wassmann III, its former chief financial and accounting officer, consented to the entry of Final Judgments against them at the time the complaint was filed in April 1996. Those judgments were also entered by the court on October 31, 1996.

In a related matter, the Commission today instituted an administrative proceeding against Wassmann. Simultaneously, Wassmann consented, without admitting or denying the findings contained therein, to the entry of an Order permanently denying Wassmann the privilege of appearing or practicing as an accountant before the Commission, with the right to apply for readmission after five years. [SEC v. Kendall Square Research Corporation, Henry Burkhardt III, Peter Appleton Jones, and Karl G. Wassmann III, Civil Action No. 96-10869, MLW, D. Mass.] (LR-15155, AAE Rel. 854); Administrative Proceedings in the matter of Karl G. Wassmann III, CPA - (Rel. 34-37938, AAE Rel. 853)
