TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER ISSUED AGAINST NORTH CAROLINA ENTITY AND REPRESENTATIVES IN ACTION INVOLVING SALE OF FICTITIOUS JAPANESE TREASURY BONDS

The Commission today announced that on December 12 it filed an amended complaint and obtained emergency relief in a pending action involving the offer to sell forged and fictitious treasury bonds purportedly issued by the government of Japan. Judge Charles Brieant issued a temporary restraining order and other relief against Northeast Investment Institution, Inc. (Northeast), a Fayetteville, North Carolina entity and against four representatives of Northeast including Thomas Patrick McGlon (McGlon), president and a director; Daniel Watlington (Watlington), secretary and a director; William Muwwakkill (Muwwakkill), vice-president, treasurer and a director; and Tyrone P. Jones, III (Jones), a "special consultant." The Commission alleged in its complaint that since at least October 1997, the defendants have been engaging in an apparent scheme to defraud U.S. investors through the offer of fraudulent

Japanese treasury bonds in violation of the antifraud provisions Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. The Commission alleged that Northeast and its representatives have offered for sale as many as 24 treasury bonds purportedly issued by the Japanese government totalling 12 billion yen (approximately [U.S.] $120 million). The fraudulent bonds were seized by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in October 1997 but the defendants allegedly continued to offer the bonds alleging that 12 replacement bonds had been issued representing the same purported 12 billion ven debt obligation of Japan. The Commission, introducing evidence from Japanese government, alleges that bonds are not valid the obligations of Japan and that Northeast and its representatives have used a fraudulent letter from the Ministry of Finance of Japan purportedly authenticating the bonds.

To prevent Northeast, McGlon, Watlington, Muwwakkill, and Jones from continuing to offer these and other securities and potentially selling them to investors, the Commission requested the relief granted by Judge Brieant including a temporary restraining order, an order freezing the bonds, and an order that the defendants tender the instruments to the registry of the Court. Further, the Judge's order requires an accounting from the defendants of all assets, including financial instruments or government bonds, held by the defendants or offered by the defendants for sale or other transfer. In addition to the emergency relief granted today, the Commission seeks civil penalties against the defendants.

The Commission today also announced that Judge Brieant issued a preliminary injunction against the five original defendants in that action who offered to sell forged and fictitious certificates of deposits (CDs) purportedly issued by an Argentinean bank in addition to the fictitious treasury bonds purportedly issued by the government of Japan. Judge Charles Brieant issued the preliminary injunction against Uniglobe Trading Company Inc. (Uniglobe), a Yonkers, New York entity which claims to assist clients in the transfer of financial instruments and commodities; two of its officers, Clint Holland (Holland) and Margaret Laughrin (Laughrin); Moorgreen Holdings Limited (Moorgreen), a Gibralter company with offices in Spain; and a Moorgreen representative, Raymond Nakachian (Nakachian). The complaint alleged that the defendants have offered for sale at least two, and possibly as many as sixteen, fraudulent CDs of Banco de la Nacion Argentina with stated principal amounts exceeding [U.S.] $100 million each and a false "certificate of custody deposit (safe keeping receipt) " purportedly issued by Deutsche Bank Argentina S.A. The defendants offered the CDs, due to mature in approximately one year, at substantial discounts from face value, in cash only transactions. The Commission, citing evidence from the Argentinean banks, alleged that the instruments are fraudulent. For additional information, see litigation release number 15568 (November 21, 1997). [SEC v. Uniglobe Trading Company, Inc., et al., 97 Civ. 08659, USDC, SDNY] (LR-15592)
