COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

COMMISSION TO HOST FORUM TO SEEK VIEWS OF KEY USERS OF CORPORATE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENTS

The Commission will host a Research Forum next month in order to learn more about how well the corporate disclosure system serves the persons who are its primary users. Approximately 45 representatives of various types of users of corporate documents, including securities analysts, institutional investors, broker-dealers, investment bankers, investment advisers and shareholder groups, have been invited to participate in the Forum. The purpose is to enable Commissioners and SEC staff to hear firsthand suggestions as to how the Commission might improve disclosure documents and its releases that propose changes in the disclosure system.

The Forum will be held between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. on Wednesday, November 17 in Room 1C30 of the Commission's headquarters building, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. Interested members of the public are welcome to attend, insofar as seating is available.

SECURITIES REGULATION SEMINAR

On October 21 and 22, 1982, the Los Angeles Regional Office of the Commission, the Business and Corporations Law Section of the Los Angeles County Bar, the California Department of Corporations, and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants will hold their Fifteenth Annual Cooperative Securities Regulation Seminar. The two-day program will be highlighted by the luncheon speakers - on October 21, The Honorable John S.R. Shad, Chairman, SEC - and on October 22, William A. Niskanen, Member of the President's Council of Economic Advisers.

ADDITION TO WEEKLY CALENDAR

Commissioner Longstreth will address the Investor Responsibility Research Center's program, "Investor Responsibility in Evolution," on October 18, 1982, in New York City. The title of his remarks is "SEC Disclosure Policy Regarding Management Integrity and Other Non-Financial Matters."

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

EDITH ALTER CITED

Public administrative proceedings have been ordered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 against Edith C. Alter of Saint Augustine, Florida, a person formerly associated with the Commission as an investment adviser.

The proceedings are based upon allegations that from December 1971 to March 1976, Alter violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Advisers Act in connection with her management of investment advisory clients. Among other things, the order alleges that Alter made false statements and omissions of material facts relating to, among other things: her ability to generate growth and capital gains in clients' accounts and to protect such accounts from sustaining losses; the risks involved in the trading strategies employed by her; and the potential rates of return realizable from the securities trading strategies and methods employed by her. A hearing will be scheduled to take evidence on the staff's allegations and to afford the Respondent an opportunity to offer any defense thereto for the purpose of determining whether any action of a remedial nature should be ordered by the Commission. (Rel. IA-827)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

CARLO FLORENTINO SENTENCED

John S. Martin, U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York and the SEC announced that on October 4 Carlo Florentino was sentenced by U.S. District Court Judge William C. Conner to one year of incarceration and two years of probation for criminal violations of certain antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The sentence of one year of incarceration was suspended provided that Florentino meet certain conditions, including that he disgorge all profits resulting from his illegal conduct. On June 24, 1982, Florentino pled guilty to two felony counts of an indictment charging him with violations of the securities laws. In his plea Florentino admitted to effecting transactions in the securities of ten issuers while in possession of material non-public information about proposed or pending mergers or takeovers of those issuers which Florentino had obtained while working as an attorney at two New York City law firms. The two law firms had been engaged in counselling clients involved in the mergers and takeovers.

In a related action, the Commission filed a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York on September 21 seeking to enjoin Florentino from further violations of the securities laws with respect to the same transactions alleged in the indictment against him and to compel him to disgorge his profits from the transactions. The litigation between the Commission and Florentino is continuing. [See LR-9456] (U.S. v. Carlo Florentino, 82 Cr. 450, S.D.N.Y.). (LR-9778)

FREDERIX P. DEVEAU SENTENCED

Frederix P. DeVeau was sentenced to 179 days incarceration on October 5 after having been found by Judge Fred Shannon of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas to be in civil and criminal contempt of the Court's Order of Preliminary Injunction entered on June 10, 1982. The Court found that DeVeau had engaged in a scheme to defraud an East Coast chain of health clubs and had failed to file a required accounting with the Court. The Preliminary Injunction had been entered in the Commission's underlying action against DeVeau which arose from his takeover of Jet Industres, Inc., a Texas manufacturer of electric vehicles. The hearing on the criminal contempt charges against another defendant, Irving M. Drobny, a former director of Jet Industries, has been continued until a date to be later set by the Court. (LP-9780)
