COURT ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

FORMER PRESIDENT OF S.J. SALMON & CO., INC. SENTENCED

The New York Regional Office announced that on December 14 Sheldon J. Salmon was sentenced by the Honorable Charles E. Stewart, District Court Judge for the Southern District of New York, to serve a term of eighteen months imprisonment on each of two counts of an indictment, the terms to run concurrently. Mr. Salmon is the former president of S.J. Salmon & Co., Inc., a now defunct broker-dealer. This sentencing was the result of his guilty plea on May 9 to one count of conspiracy to violate the securities laws and to one count of mail fraud. Mr. Salmon had previously been sanctioned by the Commission in a related administrative proceeding instituted on September 26, 1974. (U.S. v. Sheldon Salmon, et al., 77 Crim. 49, S.D.N.Y., U.S. v. Jerome H. Truen, et al., S.77 Crim. 140, S.D.N.Y.). (LR-8231)

COMPLAINT NAMES BENGAL OIL & GAS CORPORATION, OTHERS

The SEC announced that on December 8 the Commission filed a civil injunctive action in the Federal District Court at Midland, Texas, naming as defendants Bengal Oil & Gas Corporation, R. Searle McGrath and Benjamin F. Hoffacker, Jr., all of Midland. The complaint alleged that the defendants had violated the antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer and sale of interests in limited partnerships and joint ventures organized by Bengal to engage in oil and gas exploration and production, and in the offer and sale of common stock of Bengal, a publicly-held company, the common stock of which is traded over-the-counter. Specifically, the complaint alleged that McGrath caused Bengal to misappropriate assets of the limited partnerships and joint ventures and to use such funds in the general operations of Bengal, and that Hoffacker participated in the sale of interests in a joint venture in 1976 without disclosing material facts concerning, among other things, the financial condition of Bengal and the use by the company of funds belonging to limited partnerships which it managed for purposes unrelated to the business of the limited partnerships. The complaint further alleged that McGrath and Hoffacker assisted in the promotion of the sale of common stock of Bengal to shareholders and prospective shareholders based upon misrepresentations concerning the proposed acquisition by the company of funds to be derived from a fund raising effort to be conducted by others in Europe, at a time when neither McGrath nor Hoffacker believed that such fund raising effort would be successful. (SEC v. Bengal Oil & Gas Corporation, et al., W.D. Texas). (LR-8232)

COMPLAINT NAMES SALVATOR J. DELORO

The Fort Worth Regional Office and the Houston Branch Office announced that on December 16 the Commission filed a civil injunctive complaint in Federal District Court at Houston, Texas, seeking to enjoin Salvatore J. Deloro, Houston, Texas, from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The complaint alleged that Deloro violated the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer and sale of unregistered securities in the form of fractional undivided working interests in oil and gas leases located in Liberty County, Texas, issued by Midway Resources, Inc., a Texas corporation. (SEC v. Salvatore J. Deloro, S.D. Texas). (LR-8233)
