usda food safety - risk based approach to inspection meeting on november 15 in washington for national advisory committee on meat and poultry dkt 05 031N

i cannot attend this meeting but do have comments for the record. it is clear that the safety and humane raising of meat and poultry is being totally ignored by this committee and i object to that.

i also object to the fact that far too many profiteers who make money from the cruel abuse and torture of chickens and cattle sit on this committee.

it is clear the public interest of the citizens of this country is being entirely overlooked and ignored by this committee. We do not want any animal abused, drugged up by this industry. This industry is ignoring all regulations and laws on humane treatment and consistently opposes humane treatment of animals.
