PUBLIC ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST MELVIN MECKLER

Public administrative proceedings have been instituted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against Melvin Meckler of Hollywood, Florida, a person formerly associated with a broker-dealer registered with the Commission.

Simultaneously with the institution of proceedings, the Commission accepted an Offer of Settlement from Meckler, whereby he consented to the entry of an Order by the Commission providing for findings: (1) that on April 14, 1982, a Final Judgment in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York enjoining him from violating Sections 5(a), 5(c), and 17(a) of the Securities Act, Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder [SEC v. Arnold Cohen, et al., 82 Civ. 1154 (S.D.N.Y.) (RJW)]; and (2) without admitting or denying that he wilfully violated Sections 5(a), 5(c) and 17(a) of the Securities Act and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, in that with respect to transactions in the securities of Anglo American Properties, Inc. and Sunny Land Tours, Inc., Meckler: (a) violated the registration provisions; (b) participated in a scheme to manipulate the prices of the securities; and (c) made material misstatements or omissions.

Meckler also consented to the entry of an Order by the Commission providing for: (a) a suspension from association with any broker, dealer, investment company, investment adviser or municipal securities dealer, for a period of four months; and (b) a bar from association with any of the above in a proprietary or supervisory capacity, provided that after two years, he may apply to become reassociated in a proprietary or supervisory capacity; the suspension and bar to run consecutively. CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

JOSEPH S. AMUNDSEN ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on February 17 the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California permanently enjoined Joseph S. Amundsen, a certified public accountant from Santa Rosa, California, from violating antifraud provisions of the securities laws, and from appearing or practicing before the Commission. Amundsen consented to the entry of the Court's Final Judgment without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint. The complaint alleged that Amundsen failed to conduct an audit of the fiscal 1977, 1978 and 1979 financial statements of Olympic Gas & Oil, Inc. in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards notwithstanding a contrary representation in his opinion. The Commission alleged that the fiscal 1979 financial statements were not prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The complaint also alleged that he signed an unqualified opinion with respect to Olympic's financial statements as of and for the six months ended August 31, 1979 without conducting an audit and that he made certain misrepresentations to the Commission's staff during its investigation. Administrative proceedings which the Commission instituted against Amundsen on November 30, 1982 will be dismissed. (SEC v. Joseph S. Amundsen, USDC ND CA, Civil Action No. 83-00711). (LR-9896)

PERMANENT INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST NATIONAL BOND AND SHARE CO., OTHERS

The Denver Regional Office announced that on February 10 the Honorable John P. Moore of the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado issued a Permanent Injunction against National Bond and Share Co., Hughes Centrex Corp., Richard Radford and Luayne C. Chatham, all of Denver, Colorado. The defendants consented to the entry of the injunction without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint. The injunction prohibits all four defendants from violating or aiding and abetting violations of the examination provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. It further prohibits National, a registered transfer agent, and Chatham, its president, from violating or aiding and abetting violations of various transfer agent books and records provisions of the Exchange Act. The judgment follows issuance by the Court of similar orders in a temporary restraining order on December 6, 1982, and a preliminary injunction on December 13, 1982. (SEC v. National Bond and Share Co., et al., USDC, Colo., Civil Action No. 82-JM-2079). (LR-9898)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

SNELLEN JOHNSON SENTENCED

The U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of California, the Denver Regional Office, and the Salt Lake Branch Office announced that on January 31 Judge Earl B. Gilliam of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California sentenced Snellen M. Johnson of Heber City, Utah, to 25 years in prison. Johnson was convicted on December 13, 1983 by a federal jury of 30 counts of securities, mail and wire fraud. Judge Gilliam refused to grant Johnson a 90-day diagnostic study and denied bond pending appeal. He also declined to recommend Johnson for early parole consideration.

Spencer Hooper of Salt Lake City, Utah, a co-defendant who was convicted of 25 counts of securities, mail and wire fraud in the same trial, was granted a 90-day diagnostic study before final sentencing by Judge Gilliam. C. Roland Long, a third co-defendant, who pled guilty to a Rule 10b-5 information, was sentenced by the Judge to three years probation and a fine of $1,000.

Johnson and Hooper were convicted after 41 days of trial stretched over a three-month period for fraud in the offer and sale of promissory notes to International Resources, Inc., which were secured by the pledge of common stock of NAVSAT Systems, Inc.
