From Cowgill, Gulezian, Jackie Fisher, etc. Gulezian is Director of the Great Lakes National Program Office; Cowgill is a branch (or section) chief. Gulezian was sent the AOC report from Dr. De Rosa and he had EPA personnel review it (I assume).

Chris,

I have requested a list of the EPA reviewers for the AOC report (Dave Cowgill, cc of Gary Gulezian, Jackie Fisher of the Human Health Network, etc.) as you advised. I have received absolutely no response.

How may I proceed with this matter?

Thank you.

Hi,
Did you mean (below e-mail) that it is Not permissible to state that Presque Isle Bay is in the Recovery Stage?
Thanks.

Annette:

The only official change is that Presque Isle Bay is the first U.S. AOC to move into Recovery Stage. The only targets that you can quote are contained in the U.S. Great Lakes Strategy:

Delist 3 AOCs by 2005; 10 by 2010 Please don't identify any by name.

I don't know what a certificate of reuse is - sorry.

RE: AOC delistings

Hi,
I am interested in incorporating any remedial action and delisting of AOCs for the ATSDR AOC report. This is to demonstrate the EPA efforts to restore the Great Lakes ecosystem.

I am adding to the report all the EPA comments re remediation of various AOC sites in their comments to the AOC report.

What aspect of what you said below may I include in the report? May I say that future consideration might result in the delisting of the two sites listed below?

Could you tell me the significance of a Certificate of Reuse?

Thanks for your help!

Hi Annette:

Presque Isle Bay is in Recovery Stage, meaning all the remedial actions have been implemented and we are now waiting for the system to recovery. Delisting probably in less than 3 years.

Oswego could be delisted this year if the stars align properly, although next year is more realistic.

This is all non-official guesswork. Please do not quote or cite this or share it with others.

Hi,
Thank you.
I will include the general information (i.e., EPA scheduled to delist 3 AOCs by 2005 and 10 by 2010 - no name).
Is the Recovery Stage a preliminary before Delisting?

Hi,
As Dr. Hicks indicated, the ATSDR response to comments made by EPA and IJC have been completed and were recently sent out. The response to the IJC comments (and you were listed as one of the reviewers) were sent to the Chairman to the U.S. Section of the IJC, Dennis Schornack, and to the EPA GLNPO head, Gary Gulevian.

Kay Austin, IJC, and Jackie Fisher, EPA, were notified of the completion of our response to the comments.

I am now working on the revisions based on the reviewers' comments. If you have any other questions, please let me know.
