Interpretations _____ 38

April [Interpretations and Actions]

1020, 2/8/2005, Letter concludes that national bank directors may meet the qualifying shares requirement under 12 USC 72 by purchasing trust preferred stock. [Note: Reprinted because of date error]

1024, 3/21/2005, Letter concludes that a national bank that renews a loan to an insider violates section 215.4(a)(1) of Regulation O and section 22(h)(A) of the Federal Reserve Act if the loan either (i) is preferential or (ii) involves more than the normal risk of repayment or presents other unfavorable features.

1025, 4/6/2005, Letter concludes that it is permissible for a national bank to engage in customer-driven electricity derivative transaction and hedges, settled in cash and by transitory title transfer, as activities part of, or incidental to, bank permissible financial intermediation transactions.

May [Interpretations and Actions]

1026, 4/27/2005, Letter concludes that the bank's proposed securities conduit lending services are legally permissible for a national bank.

1027, 5/3/2005, Letter confirms that the bank may purchase and hold the preferred securities of two special purpose entities that hold interests in Australian mortgage assets.

1028, 5/9/2005, Letter concludes that the OCC would not find a violation of 12 CFR 37.3(a) in connection with a national bank's automobile loan that includes a GAP feature offered by the bank because the OCC views the underlying loan and the GAP feature as a single product, and the financial arrangement does not create a separate product.

June [Interpretations and Actions]

1029, 5/23/2005, Letter grants a request for a waiver of certain provisions of the OCC's securities confirmation rules at 12 CFR Part 12 in connection with the bank's transfer agent activities for various dividend reinvestment, stock purchase, and employee stock purchase plans.

1030, 5/26/2005, Letter concludes that national bank may continue to hold a separate account bank-owned life insurance investment that in turns holds interests in instruments with characteristics of debt securities and a rate of return, a portion of which is linked to equity securities, provided the bank’s examiner-in-charge has no supervisory objection.

1031, 1/19/1995, Letter concludes that a bank may create a trust to purchase and hold investments beyond those allowed for national banks without violating 12 USC 24(Seventh) and 12 CFR Part 1.

1032, 6/16/2005, Letter concludes that “GAP Addendums” sold by a national bank to borrowers in connection with the bank’s motor vehicle loans, in connection with a GAP program administered by an insurance company, are debt cancellation contracts subject to 12 CFR Part 37.

Background

The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) was established in 1863 as a bureau of the Department of the Treasury. The OCC is headed by the Comptroller, who is appointed by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a five-year term.

The OCC regulates national banks by its power to:

- Examine the banks;
- Approve or deny applications for new charters, branches, capital, or other changes in corporate or banking structure;
- Take supervisory actions against banks that do not conform to laws and regulations or that otherwise engage in unsound banking practices, including removal of officers, negotiation of agreements to change existing banking practices, and issuance of cease and desist orders; and
- Issue rules and regulations concerning banking practices and governing bank lending and investment practices and corporate structure.

The OCC divides the United States into four geographical districts, with each headed by a deputy comptroller.

Through the National Bank Act of 1978, the OCC regulates federal branches and agencies of foreign banks in the United States.

The Comptroller

John C. Dugan was sworn in as the 29th Comptroller of the Currency on August 4, 2005. Prior to his appointment as Comptroller, Mr. Dugan was a partner at the law firm of Covington & Burling, where he chaired the firm's Financial Institutions Group. He specialized in banking and financial institution regulation. He also served as outside counsel to the ABA Securities Association. He served at the Department of the Treasury from 1989 to 1993 and was appointed assistant secretary for domestic finance in 1992. While at Treasury, Mr. Dugan had extensive responsibility for policy initiatives involving banks and financial institutions, including the savings and loan cleanup, Glass-Steagall and banking reform, and regulation of government-sponsored enterprises. In 1991, he oversaw a comprehensive study of the banking industry that formed the basis for the financial modernization legislation proposed by the administration of the first President Bush. From 1985 to 1989, Mr. Dugan was minority counsel and minority general counsel for the U.S. Senate Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs. There he advised the committee as it debated the Competitive Equality Banking Act of 1987, the Proxmire Financial Modernization Act of 1988, and the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989.

Among his professional and volunteer activities before becoming Comptroller, he served as a director of Minbanc, a charitable organization whose mission is to enhance professional and educational opportunities for minorities in the banking industry. He was also a member of the American Bar Association's committee on banking law, the Federal Bar Association's section of financial institutions and the economy, and the District of Columbia Bar Association's section of corporations, finance, and securities laws. A graduate of the University of Michigan in 1977 with an A.B. in English literature, Mr. Dugan also earned his J.D. from Harvard Law School in 1981.

The Quarterly Journal is the journal of record for significant actions and policies of the OCC. It is published four times a year, based on data released in March, June, September, and December. The Quarterly Journal is first released on the Web at www.occ.treas.gov/qj/qj.htm, and then, by subscription, on the CD-ROM Quarterly Journal Library, a cumulative collection starting with volume 17. The Quarterly Journal includes the press briefing on the condition and performance of commercial banks, statistical tables on the performance of FDIC-insured banks and OCC data on bank corporate structure, policy statements, decisions on banking structure, appeals to the ombudsman, links to selected speeches and congressional testimony and interpretive letters, summaries of enforcement actions, and other information of interest in the administration of national banks. Please send your comments and suggestions to Rebecca Miller, senior writer-editor, by fax to (202) 874-5263 or by e-mail to quarterlyjournal@occ.treas.gov. The subscription to the Quarterly Journal Library CD-ROM is available for $50 a year by writing to Publications—QJ, OCC, Attn: Accounts Receivable, MS 4-8, 250 E St., SW, Washington, DC 20219 [order form].

(revised July 2005)

Notice to Customers Making Payment by Check

Authorization to convert your check: If you present a check to make your payment, your check will be converted into an electronic fund transfer. “Electronic fund transfer” is the term used to refer to the process in which a business or government agency electronically instructs your financial institution to transfer funds from your account to its account, rather than processing your paper check. By presenting your signed check to the OCC, you authorize the agency to copy the check and to use the account information from the check to make an electronic fund transfer from your account for the same amount as the check. If the electronic fund transfer cannot be processed for technical reasons, you authorize the OCC to process the copy of your check.

Insufficient funds: The electronic fund transfer from your account will usually occur within 24 hours, which is faster than a check is normally processed. Therefore, make sure sufficient funds are available in your checking account when you send your check to the OCC. If the electronic fund transfer cannot be completed because of insufficient funds, the OCC may attempt the transfer two additional times.

Transaction information: The electronic fund transfer from your account will be on the account statement you receive from your financial institution. However, the transfer may be in a different place on your statement than the place where your check entries normally appear. For example, it may appear under “other withdrawals” or “other transactions.” You will not receive your original check back from your financial institution. For security reasons, the OCC will destroy your original check, but it will keep a copy of the check for record keeping.

Your rights: You should contact your financial institution immediately if you believe that the electronic fund transfer reported on your account statement was not properly authorized or is otherwise incorrect. Consumers have protections under a federal law called the Electronic Fund Transfer Act for an unauthorized or incorrect electronic fund transfer.

RECENT LICENSING DECISIONS

RECENT LICENSING DECISIONS

Cases Published during April, May, and June 2005

CRA Decisions

On April 25, 2005, the OCC conditionally approved the application to combine Riggs Bank National Association, McLean, VA, with PNC Bank, National Association, Pittsburgh, PA. The OCC received comments from one community organization expressing Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) concerns. Based on both banks' "outstanding" rating in their latest CRA public evaluations and other analyses and information considered, the OCC found approval consistent with the CRA. [Conditional Approval No. 687]

Change in Bank Control

On March 4, 2005, the OCC did not disapprove Change in Bank Control Notices filed in connection with the proposed acquisition of First National Bank of Marin, Las Vegas, NV (collectively, "notices"), by Sherman Financial Group LLC, Radian Group, Inc., and MGIC Investment Corporation. The OCC's action is expressly conditioned on compliance with the agreement made in connection with these notices between Sherman Financial Group LLC and the OCC dated February 25, 2005, which agreement may be enforced under 12 USC 1818. [Corporate Decision No. 2005-01]

Mergers

On April 11, 2005, the OCC conditionally approved the application to establish Atlantic Trust, National Association, Chicago, IL (Interim Bank), and the subsequent merger of Atlantic Trust Company, National Association, Boston, MA, and Atlantic Trust Co., National Association, District of Columbia, into Atlantic Trust, National Association ("bank"), under the charter number of the latter and with the title of "Atlantic Trust, National Association." This conditional approval was subject to several conditions including within 30 days after consummating the mergers, the board of directors of the bank shall execute a formal agreement with the OCC, the terms of which shall be subject to the OCC's discretion. [Conditional Approval No. 685]

Operating Subsidiaries

On March 24, 2005, the OCC approved the application by JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, New York, NY (“bank”), to acquire Vastera, Inc. (“Vastera”) as an operating subsidiary of the bank. Vastera provides global trade management services. The OCC found that the activities performed by Vastera are part of the business of banking or incidental to the business of banking under 12 USC 24(Seventh) and the bank’s systems and controls are sufficient to enable it to conduct the activities in a safe and sound manner. [Corporate Decision No. 2005-02]

Capital

On April 7, 2005, the OCC conditionally approved the application by First National Bank of Mayfield, Mayfield, KY (“bank”), to elect corporate governance provisions of Kentucky law and complete a reverse stock split in accordance with those provisions. This represents the first OCC approval of a reverse stock split conducted under Kentucky corporate governance procedures. This approval was subject to condition requiring the bank: to elect the corporate governance provisions of Kentucky law, provide for dissenters’ rights comparable to those found in relevant statutes, pay the cost of any appraisal that may occur if any shareholders dissent, and pay for binding arbitration by an independent third party to appraise the stock if the appropriate court(s) decline to accept jurisdiction of an appraisal action. [Conditional Approval No. 683]

SPECIAL SUPERVISION AND ENFORCEMENT ACTIVITIES

The Special Supervision Division of the Midsize and Community Bank Supervision Department supervises critical problem banks through rehabilitation or through other resolution processes such as orderly failure management or the sale, merger, or liquidation of such institutions. The Special Supervision Division monitors the supervision of delegated problem banks, coordinates safety and soundness examinations, provides training, analyzes and disseminates information, and supports OCC supervisory objectives as an advisor and liaison to OCC management and field staff on emerging problem bank-related issues.

This section includes information on problem national banks, national bank failures, and enforcement actions. Data on problem banks and bank failures is provided by OCC's Special Supervision Division and the FDIC's Department of Resolutions in Washington. Information on enforcement actions is provided by the Enforcement and Compliance Division (E&C) of the Law Department. The latter is principally responsible for presenting and litigating administrative actions on the OCC's behalf against banks requiring special supervision.

Problem National Banks and National Bank Failures

Problem banks represented less than 1 percent of the national bank population as of June 30, 2005. The volume of problem banks, those with a CAMELS rating of 4 or 5, has been stable for several years and declined in 2005. The CAMELS rating is the composite bank rating based on examiner assessment of capital, asset quality, management, earnings, liquidity, and sensitivity to market risk. The total number of problem banks is 14 at June 30, 2005. This low volume of problem banks reflects the stable economy and generally favorable economic conditions enjoyed for the past several years. No banks have failed as of June 30, 2005.

Enforcement Actions

The OCC has a number of remedies with which to carry out its supervisory responsibilities. When it identifies safety and soundness or compliance problems, these remedies range from advice and moral suasion to informal and formal enforcement actions. These mechanisms are designed to achieve expeditious corrective and remedial action to return the bank to a safe and sound condition.

The OCC takes enforcement actions against national banks, parties affiliated with national banks, and servicing companies that provide data processing and other services to national banks. The OCC's informal enforcement actions against banks include commitment letters and memorandums of understanding (MOUs). Informal enforcement actions are meant to handle less serious supervisory problems identified by the OCC in its supervision of national banks. Failure to honor informal enforcement actions will provide strong evidence of the need for the OCC to take formal enforcement action. The charts below show total numbers of the various types of informal enforcement actions completed by the OCC against banks in the last several years.

Source: OCC Systems. Note that totals for previous years' completed enforcement actions may be adjusted to reflect revised aggregates.

The most common types of formal enforcement actions issued by the OCC against banks over the past several years have been formal agreements and cease-and-desist orders. Formal agreements are documents signed by a national bank's board of directors and the OCC in which specific corrective and remedial measures are enumerated as necessary to return the bank to a safe and sound condition. Cease-and-desist orders (C&Ds), sometimes issued as consent orders, are similar in content to formal agreements, but may be enforced either through assessment of civil money penalties (CMPs) or by an action for injunctive relief in federal district court. The OCC may also assess CMPs against banks, and in 2005, the OCC assessed CMPs against 10 banks.

SPECIAL SUPERVISION AND ENFORCEMENT ACTIVITIES

The most common enforcement actions against individuals and other institution-affiliated parties are CMPs, personal C&Ds, and removal and prohibition orders. CMPs are authorized for violations of laws, rules, regulations, formal written agreements, final orders, conditions imposed in writing, unsafe or unsound banking practices, and breaches of fiduciary duty. Personal C&Ds may be used to restrict activities, order payment of restitution, or require institution-affiliated parties to take other affirmative action to correct the results of past conduct. Removal and prohibition actions, which are used in the most serious cases, result in lifetime bans from the banking industry.

Recent Enforcement Cases

Below are summaries of the significant cases completed between January 1 and June 30, 2005:

A. Actions Involving Anti-Money Laundering/Bank Secrecy Act Compliance

Banks ordered to comply with BSA/AML provisions. The OCC brought enforcement actions against banks for failing to maintain adequate BSA/AML compliance programs and ordered those banks to provide for internal controls, auditing, and employee training and to designate a BSA compliance officer. In the Matter of Asian Pacific National Bank, San Gabriel, Calif., Doc. No. 2005-3 (Jan. 24, 2005); In the Matter of Arab Bank PLC, New York, N.Y. (federal branch), Doc. Nos. 2005-13 (Feb. 8, 2005) and 2005-14 (Feb. 24, 2005); In the Matter of City National Bank, Beverly Hills, Calif., Doc. No. 2005-16 (Feb. 23, 2005); United Americas Bank, N.A., Atlanta, Ga., Doc. No. 2005-19 (Feb. 23, 2005); The Fulton County National Bank and Trust Company, McConnellsburg, Penn., Doc. No. 2005-29 (Mar. 23, 2005); Interbusiness Bank, N.A., Diamond Bar, Calif., Doc. No. 2005-53 (May 16, 2005); Far East National Bank, Los Angeles, Calif., Doc. No. 2005-63 (June 13, 2005); United National Bank, San Marino, Calif., Doc. No. 2005-64 (June 16, 2005); and Continental National Bank of Miami, Miami, Fla., Doc. No. 2005-65 (June 22, 2005).

Order issued against bank and bank officer prohibited and ordered to pay fine. The OCC issued a cease-and-desist order by consent against the federal branch of Banco de Chile for deficiencies in the branch's internal controls, particularly in the area of BSA/AML compliance. The OCC also issued a prohibition order by consent and assessed a $200,000 civil money penalty against the branch's former general manager. In the Matter of Banco de Chile, New York, N.Y. (federal branch), Doc. No. 2005-2 (Feb. 1, 2005); In the Matter of Hernan Donoso, Doc. No. 2005-42 (Apr. 14, 2005).

B. Unfair and Deceptive Acts or Practices

Banks given guidance on unfair real estate lending practices. On Feb. 2, 2005, the OCC issued residential real estate lending standards and, on May 16, 2005, issued (jointly with other financial regulators) Credit Risk Management Guidance for Home Equity Lending, to assist national banks in their efforts to avoid becoming involved in predatory, abusive, unfair, or deceptive residential mortgage lending practices. (OCC Bulletin 2005-3, News Release 2005-48)

Former bank officer fined for real estate-secured lending practices. The OCC issued prohibition and cease-and-desist orders by consent and assessed a $20,000 civil money penalty against a former bank vice president and loan officer for making tax lien loans that violated the Home Ownership Equity Protection Act, the Truth in Lending Act, the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, and the Federal Trade Commission Act and for receiving a large portion of excessive and duplicative fees collected by the bank from customers, including fees for services that were never performed. The OCC had earlier required the bank to make restitution to affected customers and had issued a cease-and-desist order by consent against the company that marketed, originated, serviced, and collected the tax lien loans to restrict its conduct of business with insured depository institutions. In the Matter of Michael K. Muckleroy, Doc. No. 2005-46 (Apr. 19, 2005).

C. Actions to Combat Identity Theft

Former bank teller prohibited and ordered to make restitution. The OCC issued prohibition and restitution orders by consent against a former bank teller for allegedly making unauthorized and fraudulent withdrawals from a bank customer's account, for his own benefit. In the Matter of Bradley A. Odom, Bank of America, N.A., Charlotte, N.C., Doc. No. 2005-50 (Apr. 28, 2005).

Former bank employee prohibited and ordered to make restitution. Following the OCC's issuance of a Notice of Charges, the Federal Reserve Board issued a prohibition order and the OCC issued a restitution order against a former bank employee for allegedly altering bank records to inflate the amount of deposits into customers' accounts and depositing the surplus into his own account and for diverting for his own use a cash overage that resulted when he conducted an improper transaction. In the Matter of Kenneth L. Coleman, PNC Bank, N.A., Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mellon Bank, N.A., Pittsburgh, Pa., Doc. No. 2005-37 (Mar. 1, 2005); In the Matter of Kenneth L. Coleman, Doc. No. 2005-38 (Mar. 2, 2005).

Former bank employee prohibited and ordered to pay fine. The OCC issued a prohibition order by consent and assessed a $5,000 civil money penalty against a former bank employee who allegedly made unauthorized transfers from her relatives' accounts into her business account; made unauthorized loans to, and withdrawals from, accounts of unrelated bank customers; and provided falsified bank documents to another bank for the purpose of obtaining a business loan. In the Matter of Angie Cox, The Peoples National Bank of McLeansboro, McLeansboro, Ill., Doc. No. 2005-20 (Feb. 9, 2005).

Bank operating subsidiary ordered to pay fine. The OCC assessed a $180,000 civil money penalty by consent against a bank's operating subsidiary for allegedly failing to dispose of confidential customer information in a secure fashion, in violation of OCC regulations governing the security of customer information. In the Matter of First Horizon Home Loan Corporation (operating subsidiary of First Tennessee Bank N.A., Memphis, Tenn.), Doc. No. 2005-78 (June 30, 2005).

D. Actions to Enforce Flood Insurance Requirements

In the first half of 2005, the OCC assessed civil money penalties totaling $650,700 against 8 banks for violations of flood insurance requirements.

Banks ordered to pay fines for flood insurance violations. The OCC assessed civil money penalties of $500,000 and $115,000, respectively, against two banks for allegedly engaging in patterns of making loans in special flood hazard areas without requiring coverage of the property securing the loans by requisite flood insurance. The first bank also allegedly failed to provide required notice to borrowers of insufficient flood insurance, and failed to purchase flood insurance on borrowers' behalf where required. In the Matter of Charter One Bank, N.A., Cleveland, Ohio, Doc. No. 2005-55 (May 17, 2005); In the Matter of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., Sioux Falls, S.D., Doc. No. 2005-77 (June 27, 2005).

E. Actions to Combat Insider Abuse

Actions against bank officers and directors for violations of law, unsafe or unsound practices, and breaches of fiduciary duty. The OCC issued prohibition and restitution ($50,000) orders by consent and assessed a $20,000 civil money penalty against the former president of a bank. The Federal Reserve issued a prohibition order against the bank's former vice president and director on an action initiated by the OCC, which also assessed a $50,000 civil money penalty. The bank, which had been operating under a formal agreement since 2001, allegedly failed to correct deficiencies in lending practices, asset quality, and internal controls and allegedly failed to correct violations of law, including suspected violations of the legal lending limit. The bank's four outside directors consented to assessments of civil money penalties in amounts ranging from $5,000 to $18,000. Three of those directors consented to cease-and-desist orders and the fourth consented to a prohibition order. In the Matter of Robert C. Hobgood, First National Bank, Lubbock, Tex., Doc. No. 2005-33 (Feb. 18, 2005); In the Matter of Walter C. "Charlie" Cleveland, Doc. Nos. 2005-79 (June 20, 2005) and 2005-121 (Aug. 17, 2005); In the Matter of Kim Morris, Doc. No. 2004-111 (Sept. 3, 2004); In the Matter of Darrell Hobgood, Doc. No. 2004-110 (Sept. 28, 2004); In the Matter of Brian Burns, Doc. Joint action by OCC and HUD against banks' settlement agent. The OCC issued a cease-and-desist order by consent and, jointly with the Dept. of Housing and Urban Development, assessed a $5 million civil money penalty against a title insurance company for an alleged pattern of violation of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act by providing inaccurate HUD-1 Settlement Statements to borrowers and to federally insured depository institutions and for unsafe or unsound settlement practices. Two loan officers, one of whom is suspected to have engaged in misconduct at two successive banks, allegedly received payments and other benefit for making several million dollars' worth of loans to non-creditworthy borrowers for the benefit of a third party and to the detriment of the banks issuing the loans. The OCC issued prohibition actions by consent and assessed civil money penalties of $250,000 and $130,000 against those two former bank officers for misconduct in connection with the origination of loans. In the Matter of Chicago Title Insurance Co., settlement agent for Whitney National Bank, New Orleans, La.; Southwest Bank of Texas, N.A., Houston, Tex., and Frost National Bank, San Antonio, Tex., Doc. ## SPECIAL SUPERVISION AND ENFORCEMENT ACTIVITIES

Action against bank for insider abuse. The OCC issued a cease-and-desist order against a community bank for alleged insider abuse and for failure to comply with a 2002 Formal Agreement. In the Matter of First National Bank of Shelby County, Columbiana, Ala., Doc. No. 2005-52 (May 18, 2005).

Petitions for review of enforcement actions rejected by Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. In 2003, following the OCC's issuance of Notices of Charges, the Federal Reserve Board issued orders for prohibition against two former bank insiders, and the OCC issued an order for joint payment of $232,000 in restitution and assessed civil money penalties of $35,000 and $20,000. In April 2005, a panel of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals rejected the insiders' petitions for review of the earlier orders. In the Matter of Gene Ulrich and Susan Diehl McCarthy, Six Rivers National Bank, Eureka, Calif., 9th Cir. Ct. Docket Nos. 03-73491, 03-73591, 03-73854, 03-73997 (Apr. 27, 2005); In the Matter of Gene Ulrich and Susan Diehl McCarthy, Doc. Nos. 2003-169 (Sept. 2, 2003) and 2003-170 (Oct. 15, 2003).

Former bank officer prohibited and ordered to pay fine. The OCC issued a prohibition order by consent and assessed a $2,500 civil money penalty against a former bank senior vice president for a pattern of misconduct involving unsafe or unsound lending practices and extending credit in violation of the bank's legal lending limits. In the Matter of Daniel R. Kline, The National Union Bank of Kinderhook, Kinderhook, N.Y., Doc. No. 2005-30 (Mar. 28, 2005).

F. Early Intervention for Problem Banks

Former bank president ordered to pay fine and take remedial action. The OCC issued a cease-and-desist order by consent and assessed a $35,000 civil money penalty against the former president of a bank that had allegedly engaged in a questionable loan transaction with The Central Bank of the Gambia. Seven of the bank's directors previously had consented to the OCC's assessments of civil money penalties for varying levels of alleged culpability for the loan transaction and other deficiencies in the bank's operations. In the Matter of Richard Dean, First Liberty National Bank, Washington, D.C., Doc. Nos. 2005-41 and 2005-48 (Apr. 13, 2005); In the Matter of Arthur Mason, Doc. No. 2004-104; In the Matter of Madhu Mohan, Doc. No. 2004-105; In the Matter of Patrick M. Donahue, Doc. No. 2004-100; In the Matter of John M. Jacquemin, Doc. No. 2004-101 (Sept. 22, 2004).

Actions against bank's chairman of the board and directors. The OCC issued a cease-and-desist order by consent and assessed a $27,500 civil money penalty against a bank's former chairman of the board for allegedly engaging in unsafe or unsound practices or breaches of fiduciary duty by (a) his continued unreasonable disregard of examination findings and direction of the OCC and (b) repeatedly failing to ensure that bank management for which he was responsible took steps to accurately report the bank's condition, as required by 12 USC 161. In addition, he allegedly engaged in unsafe and unsound practices or breaches of fiduciary duty while acting as the bank's outside counsel by failing to obtain approval of the bank's board of directors and failing to apprise the OCC of his law firm's stipulation to an injunction against the bank in a suit against the bank, which stipulation consented to an encumbrance of all of the bank's assets. The OCC also assessed civil money penalties ranging from $10,000 to $15,000 against five bank directors for alleged disregard of regulatory direction and inaccurate regulatory reports. In the Matter of David A. Barrett, Guaranty National Bank of Tallahassee, Tallahassee, Fla., Doc. No. 2005-66 (June 24, 2005); In the Matter of Linda Alexionok, Doc. No. 2005-54 (May 17, 2005); In the Matter of Rica Barrett, Doc. No. 2005-67 (June 14, 2005); In the Matter of Kenneth Fuqua, Doc. No. 2005-68 (June 24, 2005); In the Matter of Wilma Lauder, Doc. No. 2005-69 (June 8, 2005).

G. Fast Track Enforcement Cases

The OCC continued its Fast Track Enforcement program, initiated in 1996, which ensures that bank insiders who have engaged in criminal acts in banks but who are not being criminally prosecuted are prohibited from working in the banking industry. As part of the Fast Track Enforcement program, the OCC secured 5 consent prohibition orders against institution-affiliated parties from January 1, 2005, through May 25, 2005. Four of these orders incorporated restitution to the appropriate bank for losses incurred, and one of the orders incorporated a civil money penalty. During the same period, the OCC sent out notifications to 220 former bank employees who were convicted of crimes of dishonesty; the letters informed them that under federal law they are prohibited from working again in any federally insured depository institution.

APPEALS PROCESS

Appeal 1—Appeal of Semiannual Assessment Fee

Background

A bank formally appealed the OCC's right to retain the full semiannual assessment fee for the period of January 1 through June 30 since the bank converted to a state chartered commercial bank on January 1.

Discussion

The bank requested a full refund of its semiannual assessment because the supervisory responsibility shifted from the OCC to the state on January 1 and therefore no supervisory activities would be conducted by the OCC during the period covered by the assessment.

The ombudsman reviewed OCC regulations regarding payment of semiannual assessment fees. According to paragraph (5) under section (a) of 12 CFR 8 Assessment of Fees, "Each bank subject to the jurisdiction of the Comptroller of the Currency on the date of the second or fourth quarterly Call Report required by the OCC under 12 USC 161 is subject to the full assessment for the next six-month period." The OCC assessment is levied against all institutions that are in the national banking system as of December 31st and June 30th. Therefore, any bank that is a national bank on the assessment date is required to pay the full semiannual assessment for the upcoming six-month period.

Conclusion

After careful review of OCC regulations, and finding no basis for an exception, the ombudsman determined that no refund was due to the bank.

Appeal 2—Appeal of Composite and Component Ratings

Background

The bank's board of directors appealed the downgrade to a 3 of its overall composite rating and the component ratings for asset quality, management, and consumer compliance. Additionally, the board appealed the violations of law of the legal lending limit. The bank was placed under a formal agreement prior to filing the appeal.

APPEALS PROCESS

Discussion

The appeal states that the report of examination (ROE) contains unfounded allegations regarding the bank's relationship with a third-party subprime mortgage vendor, which resulted in unsatisfactory ratings in asset quality, management, and consumer compliance. Furthermore, the board stated that the legal lending limit violations were based on the manner in which the lending program operated as opposed to the written agreements between the subprime mortgage vendor and the bank.

According to the appeal, even when considering the subprime nature of the mortgage loan portfolio, the bank had not experienced losses as a result of its relationship with the subprime mortgage vendor. Bank management stated that the supervisory office was advised of the bank's interest in purchasing participations from the subprime mortgage vendor and raised no objections. Management questioned the OCC's decision to pursue an administrative action, including civil money penalties, after the bank decided to wind down its participation with the subprime mortgage vendor. The appeal also stated that the component ratings that were downgraded in this examination had been assigned satisfactory ratings only four months prior. Finally, the appeal states that the bank has not done anything wrong, much less illegal, predatory or abusive, in its relationship with the subprime mortgage vendor.

The supervisory office stated that bank management failed to provide adequate oversight of its relationship with the subprime mortgage vendor. The lack of policies and procedures for the subprime mortgage portfolio, poor loan administration and risk management practices coupled with the predatory nature of the portfolio, exposed the bank to increased reputation and financial risk. Loan officers responsible for the subprime mortgage portfolio lacked the knowledge necessary to identify violations of law and regulation in the portfolio. This indicated a lack of proper training over consumer laws and regulations along with weak internal controls. Based on the weaknesses noted in the areas of credit, risk management, and consumer compliance, including the resulting violations of law, management and board supervision were considered weak.

Conclusion

The ombudsman conducted a review of the information submitted by the bank and support documentation from the supervisory office. The review included meetings with the bank's senior management and legal counsel, as well as with members of the supervisory office.

Because the bank was operating under an enforcement action, the ombudsman's review was limited to a determination of reasonableness as defined in OCC Bulletin 2002-9, "National Bank Appeals Process," (February 25, 2002). Essentially, the ombudsman used a process similar to that of a federal appeals judge versus the de-novo review process that is customarily employed on non-enforcement-related appellate matters. Therefore, the review focused on whether the ratings were reasonable as assigned based on the condition of the bank at the time of the examination. Additionally, the violations of law were deemed to be outside of the scope of the appeal.

The ombudsman ruled that the conclusions reached by the supervisory office regarding asset quality, management, and consumer compliance were reasonable and well supported by the facts at the time of the examination. Additionally, the overall condition of the bank met the criteria of a composite-3-rated bank as prescribed by the Uniform Financial Institutions Rating System (UFIRS), (OCC Bulletin 97-1, "Uniform Financial Institutions Rating System and Disclosure of Component Ratings," January 3, 1997).

Appeal 3—Appeal of the Composite and Certain Component Ratings

Background

A bank, operating under a formal agreement, appealed the composite and component ratings for capital, asset quality, management, earnings, and liquidity assigned at the most recent examination.

Discussion

The bank's board of directors appealed the conclusions noted in the most recent safety and soundness examination that resulted in the downgrade of the bank's composite rating from 2 to 4. According to the appeal, the primary cause of the criticisms noted in the report of examination (ROE) can be traced to a former senior loan officer and were not reflective of overall bank supervision. The appeal further states that the downgrades for capital, asset quality, management, earnings, and liquidity were primarily based upon the perception that classified assets were increasing, and this increase would cause net losses and liquidity issues. Since the examination, the board believes that management has improved asset quality problems, created an adequate allowance for loan and lease losses, collected a significant amount of classified assets, and implemented proper policies and procedures in the lending area. Consequently, the perceived negative impact on capital, earnings, and liquidity did not materialize. Therefore, the board believes the composite, capital, asset quality, management, and earnings ratings each merit a 3 and liquidity should be rated 2.

The supervisory office response notes that the appeal discusses actions taken by the board post-examination but does not refute findings noted during the examination. As such, conclusions cited in the ROE are a valid representation of the bank's condition at that time. Asset quality was deemed unacceptable and credit risks were high. The board had failed to implement adequate procedures to prevent insider abuse and to implement an effective risk management system. Earnings performance was poor; loan losses and increased provision expenses led to net losses for the year and the current quarter. These factors as well as an increasing overall risk profile had an impact on capital adequacy. The diminishing level of secondary funding sources also affected liquidity. The supervisory office restated its position that the assigned composite of 4 and component ratings of 4, 4, 4, 4, and 3 for capital, asset quality, management, earnings, and liquidity, respectively, met the criteria in the Uniform Financial Institutions Ratings System (UFIRS).

Conclusion

The ombudsman reviewed the bank's submission as well as information supplied by the supervisory office. Because the bank was operating under an enforcement action, the ombudsman's review was limited to a determination of reasonableness as defined in OCC Bulletin 2002-9, "National Bank Appeals Process." Essentially, the ombudsman used a process similar to that of a federal appeals judge versus the de-novo review process that is customarily employed on non-enforcement-related appellate matters. Therefore, the review focused on whether the ratings were reasonable as assigned based on the condition of the bank at the time of the examination.

The ombudsman opined that the conclusions reached by the supervisory office were reasonable, well supported by the facts at the time of the examination, and met the definition of a composite 4 bank as prescribed by UFIRS. The ombudsman also found that the assigned component ratings for capital, asset quality, management, earnings, and liquidity were reasonable and accurately reflected the bank's condition at the time of the examination.

MERGERS

Mergers—April 1 to June 30, 2005

Most transactions in this section do not have accompanying decisions. In those cases, the OCC reviewed the competitive effects of the proposals by using its standard procedures for determining whether the transaction has minimal or no adverse competitive effects. The OCC found the proposals satisfied its criteria for transactions that clearly had no or minimal adverse competitive effects. In addition, the Attorney General either filed no report on the proposed transaction or found that the proposal would not have a significantly adverse effect on competition.

Notes: The column "organized and opened for business" includes all state banks converted to national banks as well as newly formed national banks. The column titled "merged" includes all mergers, consolidations, and purchases and assumptions of branches in which the resulting institution is a nationally chartered bank. Also included in this column are immediate FDIC-assisted "merger" transactions in which the resulting institution is a nationally chartered bank. The column titled "voluntary liquidations" includes only straight liquidations of national banks. No liquidation pursuant to a purchase and assumption transaction is included in this total. Liquidations resulting from purchases and assumptions are included in the "merged" column. The column titled "payouts" includes failed national banks in which the FDIC is named receiver and no other depository institution is named as successor. The column titled "merged with non-national institutions" includes all mergers, consolidations, and purchases and assumptions of branches in which the resulting institution is a non-national institution. Also included in this column are immediate FDIC-assisted "merger" transactions in which the resulting institution is a non-national institution.
