Local Trend: does the Goal Progress Indicator (GPI) data suggest that the condition in Albuquerque is improving over time (positive), staying the same (stable), or getting worse over time (negative)?

National Comparison: when comparing the latest GPI data for Albuquerque with other jurisdictions around the country or in the Southwest, is Albuquerque's condition better, similar, or worse than those jurisdictions, most of those jurisdictions or only a few?

No Score: either the data is not available or the collection methods are too different or it does not make sense to compare GPI data to other jurisdictions' data (for example, changes in aquifer level).
