

The BioPark needs YOU!

Become a volunteer teacher at the BioPark's

Rio Grande Zoo or

Albuquerque Aquarium

Teach about the wonders of nature and the importance of conservation.

To learn more, attend the New Volunteer Orientation on

Saturday, August 9, 2008

11:00-12:00,

in the Colores Building at the Rio Grande Zoo.

Volunteer teachers can host Discovery Stations at Zoo and Aquarium exhibits, give tours, conduct outreach programs, and more! No experience necessary. Must be 18 or older. Training takes place on 12 Saturdays, August – January. Download a complete job description at www.cabq.gov/biopark.

Call 764-6245 for more information.

BioPark Volunteers make a world of difference!

The BioPark is a division of the City of Albuquerque's Cultural Services Department.
For general inquiries, please call 311 (Relay NM or 711, TTY 1-800-659-8331).

Martin J. Chávez
Mayor

