

Plants for the Garden Railroad

The Rio Grande Botanic Garden invites you to attend a two-hour seminar on “Plants for the Garden Railroad.”

Where: Botanic Garden – Sunday, April 27 from 2:00 - 4:00

Featuring: Jon Stewart
Curator of Plants

The two-hour event will begin at 2:00 in the Education Building with a free lecture from Jon Stewart. Then at 3:00 the group will move outside to see the Botanic Garden’s Railroad for actual application of garden railroad plants.

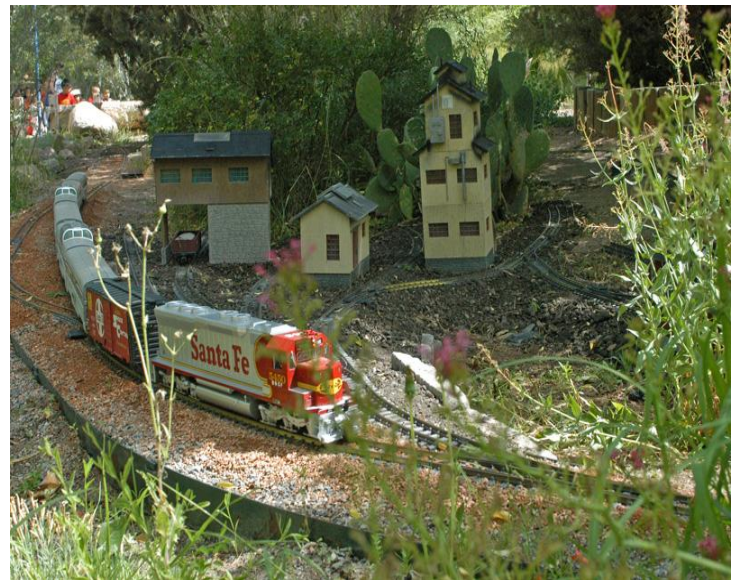

*Attendees not members of the New Mexico Garden Railroader Club will need to pay the entrance fee to the Botanic Garden.

Don't miss this opportunity to learn why the word

Garden

is in Garden Railroading.

The Albuquerque BioPark is a division of the City of Albuquerque’s Cultural Services Department. For assistance, please call 311 or 768-2000 (Relay NM or 711).

