

	ADVISEMENT OF RIGHTS (NON-CUSTODIAL)
--	---

You have a right to remain silent if your answers may tend to incriminate you.

Anything you say may be used against you in an administrative proceeding and/or any future criminal proceeding.

If you refuse to answer the questions posed to you on the grounds that the answers may tend to incriminate you, you will not be disciplined solely for remaining silent.

You may consult an attorney before making any statement or answering any question, and you may have the attorney present with you during the interview.

You may stop this interview at any time. You are also free to leave at any time.

I have read and agree to the terms of this Advisement.
