

Benefits Administration Letter

Number: 08- 101

Date: April 30, 2008

Subject: Application for Death Benefits (Civil Service Retirement System), Standard Form 2800, dated June 2006
 Documentation and Elections in Support of Application for Death Benefits (Civil Service Retirement System) When Deceased Was an Employee at the Time of Death, Standard Form 2800A, dated June 2006
 Applying for Death Benefits Under the Civil Service Retirement System, Standard Form 2800-1, dated October 2006

The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) has revised Standard Form (SF) 2800, Application for Death Benefits (Civil Service Retirement System), to bring it up-to-date and to ask whether a court has awarded a survivor benefit to any former spouse. SF 2800A, Documentation and Elections in Support of Application for Death Benefits (Civil Service Retirement System) When Deceased Was an Employee at the Time of Death, has been revised to bring it up-to-date. SF 2800-1, Applying for Death Benefits Under the Civil Service Retirement System, has been revised to bring it up-to-date and to give more detailed information about children's benefits.

The only acceptable versions of these forms are as stated above. Please destroy any prior versions you have in stock.

How to Obtain Forms

These forms can be obtained from the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) web site at www.opm.gov/forms/html/sf.asp. They are no longer printed and stocked by the General Services Administration.

Joseph E. Donald, Jr.
Assistant Director
Retirement Services Program