The following two notes have been added regarding administrative suspensions.

New Note #15a: “As a result of existing conditions in this market, Ex-Im Bank is currently not processing applications in the public sector.”

New Note #15b: “As a result of existing conditions in this market, Ex-Im Bank is currently not processing applications in the private sector.”

In the Information Supplement on Medium- and Long-Term Programs, page 12 of the CLS (under the section Where Ex-Im Bank is Off Cover for Country Credit Reasons), the following statement has been deleted from the last paragraph of this section: “Because these transactions are subject to individual special review, Ex-Im Bank will not approve Letters of Interest for them.”

For insurance customers, please refer to the changes (cover policy and notes) in the CLS to determine the availability of Insurance cover for shipments made under multi-buyer, bank letter of credit and repetitive sales type policies on or after June 8, 2001. All applications for Insurance cover are subject to the terms and conditions specified in the CLS.
