

Help Protect American Agriculture!

Don't Send Fresh Fruits and Vegetables to the U.S. Mainland. It's the law!

Fresh fruits and vegetables may carry agricultural pests or diseases.

Commodities that are permitted:

- Treated fruit in sealed boxes with a U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) treatment stamp
- Cut flowers in sealed boxes with a USDA limited permit stamp
- Pineapples, after USDA inspection

For more information, call the Plant Protection and Quarantine office at:

Hilo: (808) 933-6931
Honolulu: (808) 861-8490
Kailua-Kona: (808) 326-1252
Lihue: (808) 245-2831
Maui: (808) 877-5261

Photo credit: APHIS photo by Laurie Smith.

The USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

U.S. Department of Agriculture • Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service
Program Aid No. 1861-3

Issued March 2006