[Proposed class or classes of copyrighted work(s) to be exempted]= Works whose anti-piracy measures endanger the security of the user's computer or electronic device.

[Brief summary of the argument(s) in support of the exemption proposed above]= It has been demonstrated that some anti-piracy software in use today causes security problems. This is the same as not allowing fair use at all, and such software should be exempted from DMCA protection.