

[Proposed class or classes of copyrighted work(s) to be exempted]= Musical works on computers and digital music players

[Brief summary of the argument(s) in support of the exemption proposed above]= Specifically, to access music content on cds from non-microsoft computers and players. Most current copy protection schemes on CDs allow access to the content in .wma format for use on your computer or digital music player, a windows proprietary format.