SEVENTH JOINT STATUS REPORT AND REQUEST TO EXTEND TIME FOR EIGHTH REPORT

In January 2005, ALJ Maguire stayed these proceedings "at least through formal sentencing" in U.S. v. Vineet K. Chhabra, Crim. No. 03-530-A (E.D. Va.), and directed the parties to file joint status reports every 21 days regarding the status of Mr. Chhabra's sentencing and of settlement negotiations. Order on Complaint Counsel's Motion to Compel Discovery and Respondents' Second Motion for Protective Order and To Stay Proceedings (Jan. 12, 2005). The parties hereby file their seventh such status report and request that this Court extend the date for the next status report until after the expected date of Mr. Chhabra's sentencing.

Statement of Complaint Counsel

As stated in the Sixth Joint Status Report, Mr. Chhabra's sentencing date is currently scheduled for July 25, 2005. There has been no progress in settlement discussions in the past 21 days. Complaint counsel forwarded a proposed settlement order to Respondents on May 17, 2005; however, Respondents have made no specific suggestions for modification of the order, other than to complain that it is "onerous." Accordingly, following sentencing in the criminal matter involving Mr. Chhabra, Complaint Counsel will request that this Court lift the stay and issue an appropriate procedural order.

Statement of Counsel for Respondents

Mr. Chhabra has been unavailable for consultation with counsel due to his current incarceration. Counsel anticipates conferring with Mr. Chhabra prior to his sentencing, but this is not a certainty. Respondents have always desired to resolve this case, and that resolution continues.

Request Regarding Date for Filing Eighth Status Report

The next status report in this matter is due on or before July 22, 2005. Given that Mr. Chhabra's criminal sentencing is currently scheduled for July 25, 2005, the parties hereby request that the date for filing the next status report be extended until July 27, 2005. This extension will permit the Court to be promptly advised of the results of that hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

Janet M. Eyans
