SMILES

Flowers in the Rose Garden turn their faces
To see the sun's smile.
Each flower is dressed
In its own unique color,
Symbolizing countries and people.
Above them,
Flags fly in harmony
There is Peace.

Caroline Hutchison, Grade 6
Atlanta International School

PEACE

Peace.
A virtue. Calmness of mind.
Clear heart and soul.
Love and friendship together thrive
To make the world united again.
Adults laughing and having fun,
Children sharing happy thoughts,
Turning the Earth into Heaven.

Matei Dan, Grade 6
Atlanta International School

GARDEN OF PEACE

We are the flowers
The flowers of a garden
We work together
To form a community
We are different colors
White, red, pink and purple

A DREAM OF LOVE

From the roses softly flowering,
to the dewdrops gently showering
always true and so empowering,
his dream lives on.

Everybody's happy heart,
brings us together instead of apart.
Always sweet and never tart,
his love gives on.

Callie Hendrix, Grade 6
Inman Middle School

PEACE

Peace is a white dove.
It flies in the alleys of hate
and in the valleys of spite.

It softens the hard
and smoothes the rough,
and gives us hope.

Kai Perkuchin, Grade 6
Inman Middle School

PEACE

Peace, that's what we need
A nation without violence
but yet filled with prosperity and happiness
Violence isn't the answer
Solve your problems without fighting
Talking works just as fine
You are justified to have an opinion
but first, take a second
to listen to mine.

DyShondra Walton, Grade 8
Inman Middle School

A DREAMER TO REMEMBER

A dreamer to remember
Someone who had the courage to do something
This man changed the lives of Americans everywhere.
Who is this man?
He is the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr.

Steven Robinson, Grade 4
St. Peter Claver Regional Catholic School

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Dr. King had so much true love within
He made peace, love and joy come true again
His dream was true and sharp as a knife
And just for this dream they took his life.

Marcus Drummer, Grade 8
St. Peter Claver Regional Catholic School

A DREAM ABOUT PEACE

This man, Dr. King, had a dream,
He wanted peace in the world.
Peace for his boys and girls
Peace for his wife, and for his life

Not only did he want peace,
He wanted an equal life for you and me.
To live together, to share
To work together, to care

He didn't care about the color of your skin,
Or the gender
He just wanted you in, the World of Peace.

Shaqeira Wilson, Grade 8
Walden Middle School
