

Jackson MSC, LLC
Vice-President of Engineering
Chris Adelman

Thank you, environmental friendly appliances. forward. This delay would give all companies time to generate more further request the program be more inclusive and stringent going specification, at a minimum, to NRA 2008. At the time of launch, we Additionally, we formally request the EPA delay the launch of this washing equipment.

into account for the ENERGY STAR Logo to have any merit on ware standpoint. We believe Normal/Peak energy consumption must be taken machinery that is horribly inefficient from an energy consumption usage to obtain the ENERGY STAR logo and yet have a piece of There are many ways to minimize water consumption and idle energy consumption will not be factored in. consumption and idle energy usage. Normal/Peak operating energy The draft states machines will be categorized solely on water mistake in its means to measure and classify ware washing equipment. After a thorough review of your document, Draft 2 ENERGY STAR Commercial Dishwasher Specification, we believe the EPA is making a explain our position to you. This is a follow-up letter from the conversation we had yesterday during our conference call. I am writing this on Jackson's behalf in an effort to

Rachel,

Ms. Rachel Schmeltz
ENERGY STAR Program Manager
United States Environmental Protection Agency
Office of Air and Radiation
Washington, D.C. 20460

April 19, 2007