

Contents

Foreword	iii
Preface	xiii
Report Summary	xxi
Tables and Charts	xxxv
Abbreviations	xlvi
Persons	xlvi
I. Wartime Efforts To Halt Commerce With Germany and Prevent the Flight Abroad of German Assets.....	1
A. Allied Campaign To Prevent Neutral and Non-Belligerent Commerce With Germany and the Flow of Looted Assets to the Neutrals	1
B. Wartime Treasury Department Controls.....	2
C. Movements of Gold and Other Assets to and Through Switzerland, 1941-1943	3
D. Negotiations Leading to the Inter-Allied Declaration Against Acts of Dispossession Committed in Territories Under Enemy Occupation or Control (London Declaration of January 5, 1943)	6
E. Prevention of Axis Financial and Commercial Intercourse With the Americas, 1941–1942.....	8
F. Allied Gold Declaration of February 1944.....	9
G. Argentina’s Failure To Control Axis Funds, 1943–1946.....	10
H. Early Evidence of the Extortion and Seizure of Money and Other Assets From Jews and Other Refugees.....	11
II. The Safehaven Program.....	15
A. Origins of the Safehaven Program.....	15
B. Building a Legal Base for Safehaven Programs: Bretton Woods Resolution VI.....	17
C. Implementation of Safehaven	20
D. War Trade Negotiations.....	23
E. Evolving Policy Toward Switzerland; the Currie Mission and Its Aftermath	28
F. Safehaven After the End of the War	35
G. The Office of Strategic Services and Project Safehaven.....	37
III. Potsdam Heads of Government Meeting and the Paris Reparations Conference	49
A. German External Assets and Allied Control Council Law No. 5	49
B. Development of U.S. and Allied Policies Regarding Looted Gold, July-December 1945.....	54
C. Establishment of a Gold Pool for Looted Monetary Gold	56
D. Allied Decision at the Paris Reparations Conference To Provide Assistance for the Non-Repatriable Victims of Nazism.....	59
IV. The Allied-Swiss Negotiations at Washington, March–May 1946	63
A. The Swiss and British Perspectives on the Negotiations	63
B. The Question of Sanctions Against the Neutrals; State and Treasury on the Eve of the Negotiations.....	65
C. The Allied and Swiss Delegations at the Washington Negotiations.....	68
D. Opening of the Negotiations at Washington	69

E. Role of Intelligence in the Washington Negotiations	72
F. First Swiss Draft Agreement on German Assets	74
G. Second Swiss Draft Agreement on German Assets	75
H. Collapse of the Talks	77
I. Resumption of the Talks and the Final Swiss Offer	79
J. Response to the Swiss Offer	81
K. Allied Acceptance of the Swiss Offer	83
L. President Truman Endorses the Allied-Swiss Agreement; Senator Kilgore Rejects the Settlement .	84
M. Stucki’s Appraisal of the 1946 Allied-Swiss Negotiations	88
V. Five-Power Conference on Reparation for Non-Repatriable Victims of Germany, June 1946	91
A. Exploratory Talks	91
B. The Search for Compromise	92
C. Tentative U.S.-U.K. Agreement	92
D. The Conference Proceedings	94
E. Content of the Agreement	94
F. Annexes to the Agreement	96
VI. Implementation of the May 1946 Allied-Swiss Accord.....	97
A. The Exchange Rate Issue	97
B. Swiss Contribution to Monetary Gold in the Allied “Gold Pot”	100
C. Swiss Contribution to Non-Repatriable Victims of the Nazis	101
D. Swiss Treatment of the Assets of German-Jewish Persecutees	104
E. Switzerland and the Diplomacy of European Economic Recovery	105
F. Revision of the Washington Accord	106
G. Allied-Swiss Negotiations in Washington, May-June 1949	108
H. Possible Reconvening of the Allied-Swiss Conference	110
I. U.S. Policy Toward Switzerland in 1950 and 1951	112
J. Possible U.S. Withdrawal From the Washington Accord	113
K. Allied-Swiss Conference at Bern, March–April 1951	116
L. Direct Negotiations Between Germany and Switzerland	118
M. Compromise on Intercustodial Matters	120
VII. Allied Negotiations With the Other Neutral Countries	123
A. Allied Negotiations With Sweden	123
B. Allied Negotiations With Portugal	129
C. Allied Negotiations With Spain	140
D. Allied Negotiations With Turkey	144
E. Allied Negotiations With Argentina	147
VIII. U.S. Army Involvement With the Acquisition, Accountability, and Security of German Monetary Gold and Related Assets Following World War II	151
A. Establishment and Operations of the Foreign Exchange Depository	152
B. Distributing the Gold Recovered in Germany	156

IX. Disposal by the United States of Captured Gold Looted by Germany From Individual Victims of Nazi Persecution and From European Central Banks	161
A. Discovery of SS Loot in the Reichsbank Treasure.....	161
B. Acquisition by the Reichsbank of Gold and Valuables Looted by the SS From Jews and From Jewish and Non-Jewish Concentration Camp Inmates.....	162
C. Estimates of the Value of Persecutee-Origin Gold Acquired by the Reichsbank From the SS	166
D. Other Sources of Persecutee-Origin Gold in the Reichsbank.....	168
E. The Presence of Persecutee-Origin Gold in the “Monetary” Gold Holdings of the Foreign Exchange Depository.....	169
F. U.S. Definitions of “Monetary” and “Non-Monetary” Gold and Their Application to Persecutee-Origin Gold and Valuables.....	171
G. Distributions of Monetary and Non-Monetary Gold From the Foreign Exchange Depository.....	177
H. Conclusion	180
X. The Tripartite Commission for the Restitution of Monetary Gold.....	183
A. Establishment and Functions	183
B. The Gold Pool	183
C. The First Distribution and Subsequent Payments.....	184
D. Disposition of Monetary Gold Looted From the Netherlands	185
XI. Bank for International Settlements.....	189
XII. Disposition of Heirless Assets, 1946–1963.....	195
A. Five-Power Conference on Reparation for Non-Repatriables, June 1946	196
B. U.S. Domestic Arena, 1947-1951.....	197
C. U.S. Action on Heirless Assets, 1953-1963.....	199
D. International Arena, 1947–1951	200
E. U.S. Démarche on the Swiss-Polish Agreement.....	201
F. Swiss Estimates of the Value of Heirless Assets of Germans.....	202
G. Allied-Swiss Conference at Bern, March-April 1951.....	203
H. Allied-Swiss Agreement on the Liquidation of German Property in Switzerland, August 28, 1952.....	203
I. Impact of the German-Swiss Agreement, August 26, 1952	204
J. Heirless Assets, 1952–1963	206
Index.....	209