BRIEF STATEMENT OF DUTIES: The incumbent serves as the full Deputy to the Director, Office of Tribal Self-Governance (OTSG), Indian Health Service (IHS) and in the absence of the Director, serves as Acting Director, OTSG. The OTSG has primary responsibility to administer the Tribal Self-Governance Program (TSGP) authorized by Public Law (P.L.) 106-260, Title V, Tribal Self-Governance Amendments of 2000, the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (P.L. 93-638), as amended. The TSGP is a means for involving American Indian and Alaska Native (AI/AN) Tribes in the management of the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) and Indian Health Service (IHS) programs that benefit their members. Title V provides the maximum flexibility to Tribal governments to design programs, services, functions, and activities to address Tribal health priorities, respond to local needs and concerns and in the development of Federal/Tribal Self-Governance policy. The Tribal Self-Governance initiative allows for the realignment of functional responsibilities within IHS and the Tribes and results in the compacting of key IHS governmental functions. This position has full responsibility in conjunction with the Director, OTSG, for collaboration in and administering all functions of the OTSG. The incumbent serves as an effective advocate for Tribal governments within the DHHS and IHS on the development and implementation of Federal/Tribal Self-Governance policy; provides policy analysis and development support to Tribal governments, the Director, OTSG, and the Director, IHS, in the evolving area of Tribal self-governance and the Tribal/Federal government relationships; participates in managing the TSGP in assuring that Tribal governments are afforded opportunities for managing the DHHS and IHS programs that benefit their members; participates in the planning, development, and execution of the process for selection of Tribal governments for participation in the TSGP; participates in the process for allocation and award of planning and negotiation cooperative agreement funds to selected Tribal governments; provides technical assistance to Tribal governments in the development of Federal/Tribal Self-Governance policy and regulatory processes; provides technical assistance to Tribal governments, the Director OTSG, and the Director, IHS, in the development of Tribal Self-Governance compacts and funding agreements. Participates in overseeing the processes for determining tribal share methodologies. Ensures full disclosure of IHS programs and budget data is provided to Tribal governments. Serves as an advocate for Self-Governance Tribes and participates in decisions related to negotiations between Tribal governments and the IHS on Tribal Self-Governance issues and concerns that affect the delivery of health care to the AI/AN people served. In the absence of the Director, OTSG, has full authority to sign amendments and payment documents agreed to by a Tribal government as delegated by the Directors, IHS, and OTSG. Initiates personnel actions as directed by the Director, OTSG. In the absence of the Director, OTSG, or in accordance with the instructions of the Director, OTSG, assigns, directs, and supervises the work of the OTSG staff. Performs other duties as assigned.
