
MENTAL ILLNESS AND DRUG DEPENDENCY ACTION PLAN

To date, there has been overwhelming support for the 0.1 percent sales tax option. Below is a preliminary list:

Elected Officials

Issaquah City Council
King County District Court Judges
King County Mental Health Court
King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office
King County Sheriff's Office
Peter Lewis, Mayor of Auburn

Agencies

Asian Counseling and Referral Service
Center for Human Services
Child Care Resources
Community Psychiatric Clinic
Crisis Clinic
Downtown Emergency Service Center
Highline West Seattle Mental Health Center
King County Sexual Assault Resource Center
Mental Health Ombuds Service of King County
Renton Area Youth and Family Services
Seattle Counseling Service for Sexual Minorities
Senior Services of Seattle/King County
Solid Ground
Sound Mental Health
Southeast Youth and Family Services

Organizations

Alliance of Eastside Agencies
King County Alliance for Human Services
King County Coalition Against Domestic Violence
Lifelong AIDS Alliance
Seattle Human Services Coalition
South King County Council of Human Services
Youth and Family Services Association of King County

Boards/Committees

Governing Board of the Committee to End Homelessness in King County
King County Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Administrative Board
King County Criminal Justice Council
King County Healthy Families and Committees Task Force
King County Mental Health Advisory Board

Individuals

Over 145 mental health/chemical dependency agency staff, supporters and clients have sent letters, post cards and e-mails requesting passage of the 0.1 percent sales tax option.