STATEMENT OF ADMINISTRATION POLICY

S.J. Res. 1 – Marriage Protection Amendment

(Sen. Allard (R) Colorado and 31 cosponsors)

The Administration strongly supports Senate passage of the Marriage Protection Amendment. Recent court decisions remind us that when activist judges insist on redefining the fundamental institution of marriage for their States or potentially for the entire country, the only alternative left to make the people's voice heard is an amendment to the Constitution. Without a constitutional amendment, judges and local officials could continue to attempt to redefine marriage. The Administration believes that the future of marriage in America should be decided through the democratic constitutional amendment process, rather than by the court orders of a few. The Administration urges both houses to pass the Marriage Protection Amendment and submit it to the States for ratification.
