

insight into him, that sort of thing. That was the exaggeration that I saw.

Senator SIMPSON. And so, and I am going to conclude. So have you ever known her to focus on an injustice of some sort that she felt should be remedied? Have any of you seen that? You do. I just asked you because you used that phrase. And I wonder if any of you have ever witnessed in her some exaggeration of a slight or focusing on an injustice of some sort. Do you recall that?

Ms. HOLT. I don't recall, Senator.

Ms. FITCH. There was once an overreaction that stuck out in my mind. It wasn't important, but I thought it was clearly an overreaction. But it was not about anything terribly important.

Senator SIMPSON. Did you notice anything like that, Ms. Myers.

Senator METZENBAUM [presiding]. Senator, your time is up, and I have tried to be patient. It has gone over for several minutes.

Senator SIMPSON. I know but I haven't—just the final witness, if I might. Did you notice anything like that in what I asked?

Ms. BERRY. Not that I remember. Not that I can remember.

Senator SIMPSON. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Senator METZENBAUM. Thank you.

Ms. Berry or Berry-Myers, you made one statement that I found quite interesting. You said that, "In that capacity I have been privy to the most intimate detail of his life," meaning, of course, Judge Thomas.

Were you familiar with the details of his family life?

Ms. BERRY. Somewhat. What I meant by that was having to go through the confirmation process I am witness to like—FBI documents, letters for or against, background checks, you know, those sorts of things. That is what I meant by that.

Senator METZENBAUM. Those are the professional parts. You were saying the most intimate details of his life. Did you know, for example, of his relationship with his son?

Ms. BERRY. Yes. His son and my son were friends, and are friends.

Senator METZENBAUM. And did you know the ladies he dated, if any? I am not even sure if he was married at the time you made that statement.

Ms. BERRY. Yes, I know.

Senator METZENBAUM. You knew the ladies he went out with socially?

Ms. BERRY. Some, yes. Yes. I know of them. Some I know. And I knew his wife, yes. His first wife, Kathy.

Senator METZENBAUM. Do you know about personal problems that he had, if any?

Ms. BERRY. I know how, I know the struggle that it was when he was separating from his wife, what impact that had on his life and his son's life.

Senator METZENBAUM. The reason I asked the question is because Judge Thomas said in his statement, "I do not and will not commingle my personal life with my work life, nor did I commingle their personal life with the work life. I can think of nothing that would lead her to this," was the last sentence. It is not relevant to this point.
