

Current Status of Issue

This issue has a limited life. The repatriation deduction can only be claimed for one tax year, either 2004 or 2005. Since the deduction can be claimed on a fiscal year return, the last possible tax year that the deduction can be claimed is the fiscal year ended 9/30/2006. At this point in time, all returns should be filed that will include this deduction. These returns are starting to be put into the audit stream. The examination teams in the field should examine the Section 965 Dividend Repatriation issue following the guidance that is provided in the Notices, the Industry Director's Directives and on the website.

Executing IMT Strategy for Tier I Issues

Audit Teams Should:

Tier I: Section 965 Foreign Earnings Repatriation

Issue Description

Section 965, enacted by American Jobs Creation Act of 2004, is a temporary provision that allows U.S. companies to repatriate earnings from their foreign subsidiaries at a reduced tax rate provided that specified conditions and restrictions are satisfied.

Section 965 provides that U.S. companies may elect, for one taxable year, an 85% dividends received deduction for eligible dividends from their foreign subsidiaries.
