Subject: Correction - Incentives for service in Critical Priority Country Assignments – 2007 Foreign Service Assignment Cycle

We are reissuing a corrected version of the USAID General Notice dated 7/06/2006 announcing the incentives associated with service in the Agency's Critical Priority Country (CPC) assignments for the 2007 Assignment Cycle. Those countries included in CPC assignments, as approved by the Administrator, are Iraq, Afghanistan, Pakistan and Sudan.

The purpose of this notice is to correct the category of notice from "Personnel" to "Policy" and to correct the number of days of administrative leave from 20 days to 10 days that employees serving in Afghanistan receive to use for regional rest breaks.

The corrected announcement of the incentives package is attached.

Attachment: Incentives for Service in Critical Priority Country Assignments- 2007
Foreign Service Assignment Cycle.
