Instructions to Participant

This information is submitted to the Internal Revenue Service by the trustee of your medical savings account (MSA) or Medicare+Choice MSA (M+C MSA).

Generally, contributions you make to your MSA are deductible. However, if your employer makes a contribution to one of your MSAs, you cannot contribute to any MSA for that year. If you made a contribution to your MSA when your employer has contributed, you cannot deduct your contribution, and you will have an excess contribution. If your spouse's employer makes a contribution to your spouse's MSA, you cannot make a contribution to your MSA if your spouse is covered under a high deductible health plan that also covers you.

Contributions that the Social Security Administration makes to your M+C MSA are not includible in your gross income nor are they deductible. Neither you nor your employer can make contributions to your M+C MSA.

Box 1. Shows the contributions you made to your MSA in 2000 and through April 16, 2001, for 2000. You may be able to deduct this amount on your 2000 Form 1040. See Form 8853, Medical Savings Accounts and Long-Term Care Insurance Contracts, and its instructions. Any employer contributions are shown on your Form W-2.

Note: The information in boxes 2 and 3 is provided by the trustee for IRS use only.

Box 2. Shows the total employer and employee/self-employed contributions made in 2000 to your MSA. The trustee of your M+C MSA is not required to, but may, show contributions to your M+C MSA.

Box 3. Shows the total MSA contributions made in 2001 for 2000.

Box 4. Shows any rollover you made to this MSA in 2000 after a distribution from another MSA. See Form 8853 and its instructions for information about how to report distributions and rollovers. This amount is not included in box 1, 2, or 3.

Box 5. Shows the fair market value of your MSA or M+C MSA at the end of 2000.

Box 6. If this box is checked, this information is about a Medicare+Choice MSA.

The trustee of your MSA or M+C MSA may provide other information about your account on this form.

Do not attach Form 5498-MSA to your income tax return. Instead, keep it for your records.

For more information, see Pub. 969, Medical Savings Accounts (MSAs).
