FOR TAX YEAR 2000

THE IRS MISSION

Provide America's taxpayers top quality service by helping them understand and meet their tax responsibilities and by applying the tax law with integrity and fairness to all.

THE IRS WILL NO LONGER ACCEPT PAPER RETURNS IN THE 1040PC FORMAT

The IRS will no longer accept returns in the 1040PC format after the 2000 processing year. The Form 1040PC format is a condensed, computer-generated paper return illustrating only those lines used by a taxpayer. This discontinuation parallels IRS's decision to support Electronic Tax Administration as the preferred way of doing business for the future, particularly as it relates to electronic filing (e-file) and payment options for individual taxpayers. The availability of IRS e-file from a personal computer and the addition of more complex returns to the IRS e-file program have further reduced the need for the Form 1040PC format (usage is down nearly 20% this year). Taxpayers and tax preparers accustomed to the Form 1040PC format should note that this paper filing option will not exist for the 2001 filing season and instead, are encouraged to consider IRS e-file the fastest, most accurate way to file!

Also inside the kit, you'll find how to order a free EITC CD-ROM and free promotional materials to display in your office or provide to your clients. Call 1-800-829-3676 and ask for Publication 3107, EITC Tax Professional Kit. At the IRS, we're committed to providing you with the tools you need to prepare accurate and complete EITC tax returns.

COMMISSIONER

September 11, 2000

Dear Tax Professional,

In the past year, we have made the most significant changes to our organization, technology, and the way we serve taxpayers and practitioners in almost a half-century. We have already made considerable progress, and the IRS is committed to doing more to improve service, to protect taxpayers' rights, and to efficiently and fairly collect taxes.

This commitment is reflected in our new mission statement –

"Provide America's taxpayers top quality service by helping them understand and meet their tax responsibilities and by applying the tax law with integrity and fairness to all."

Establishing a new mission for the IRS and understanding the public's expectations are essential and meaningful steps in our following the directions and intent of the landmark IRS Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998. However, achieving this mission requires fundamental change in many aspects of an institution that has been built over many years. This change must produce success in the new mission, while retaining the essential elements that created success in the past. Further, this change must take place while the IRS continues to administer a very large, complex, and ever-changing tax system.

You play a critical role in both our tax administration system and in the changes necessary for modernization. The IRS's modernization plan emphasizes partnerships with tax professionals to meet the challenges of today and tomorrow. Your interest and support is critical to our success.

Our modernization plan is well underway with the establishment of all operating and functional divisions scheduled for completion by the end of 2000. We have also completed the first phase of a new system of balanced measures of performance and implemented 71 new taxpayer rights provisions.

I recognize the importance of a strong partnership with you and thank you for the suggestions you have made throughout this modernization effort. Please visit the Tax Information for Business page of the IRS Internet site at www.irs.gov for important up-to-date Modernization information and News for the Tax Professional. I look forward to working with you in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Charles O. Rossotti

HELP YOUR CLIENTS JOIN THE MILLIONS OF AMERICANS WHO USE

IRS e-file is fast, accurate and safe. There is no better way to file your clients' income tax returns. In filing season 2000, 25 million taxpayers chose practitioner e-file and the number of practitioner e-filed returns increased by 19%. Why not offer the service that taxpayers clearly are looking for—IRS e-file.

IRS e-file is a valuable addition to your client services:

Tap Into a Growing Market – Become an Authorized IRS e-file Provider and appeal to this growing market. IRS has a national marketing campaign supporting e-file and provides you with a free Marketing Tool Kit.

Your Clients Benefit – With IRS e-file, your clients receive their refunds in half the time—even faster and safer with Direct Deposit. Within 48 hours of filing, the IRS delivers proof that your clients' returns are accepted.

Improve Accuracy of Returns Filed – IRS e-file software alerts you to errors and allows you to correct them before the return is filed. Filing an accurate return decreases the chances of your clients receiving error notices.

Reduce Your Handling Costs – IRS e-file requires less paper handling by you and your staff. No more envelopes to address, certified mail expense or last-minute trips to the post office.

Electronic Payment Options – Your clients who owe tax can e-file their returns and, by paying electronically, manage their funds and control when payments are made. Direct debit payments can be scheduled for withdrawal on a future date up to and including April 16, 2001, or your clients can pay by credit card.

Federal/State – Both Federal and state returns are economically and efficiently transmitted at the same time.

New Features--IRS e-file will be better than ever in 2001!

- Many additional forms will be accepted. More than 99% of all returns can be e-filed.
- Taxpayers can choose to file a completely paperless return by using a self-selected PIN.

Best of All—Customer Satisfaction – Most people who e-file like it. A survey of taxpayers who e-filed their 1998 returns showed that more than 3 out of 4 would do so again.

How Can I Participate? What if I Have Questions? – Many answers can be found on our Web Site at www.irs.gov. Click on "Electronic Services," then "IRS e-file for Tax Professionals."

You can also call toll-free for more information: 1-800-691-1894.

Consider adding IRS e-file to your client services in 2001 by requesting the "IRS e-file Application Package," Publication 3112, now.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

The Tax Professional Program is designed to provide tax professionals with reference copies of the most frequently requested tax forms and instructions (Package X), and tax news and special events information for their localities (District and Service Center newsletters). This publication contains the application form and order blanks for Federal tax products available from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Superintendent of Documents (SUPDOCS), U.S. Government Printing Office (GPO), and National Technical Information Service (NTIS) for tax year 2000.

The Tax Professional's Corner (TaxPro's Corner) at www.irs.gov/bus_info/tax_pro contains detailed information about services and initiatives affecting tax professionals.

Drafts of certain high-usage products can be accessed via the TaxPro's Corner as early as May, and approved copies of Federal tax products are posted as early as September of each year. Products are usually posted 3 to 5 days after approval (see the Official Forms Release Schedule). The Local News Net available via the TaxPro's Corner is our electronic replacement for the printed local District and Service Center newsletters. Subscribe today!

PROGRAM PARTICIPATION

If you wish to continue or become a participant in the Program, Form 3975, Tax Professionals Annual Mailing List Application and Order Blank, must be transmitted (see on-line ordering for restrictions) or mailed to the appropriate IRS Area Distribution Center. Current program participants who do not submit (either electronically or via mail) a Form 3975 will be removed from the Program and will no longer receive Package X or local newsletters. A copy of Form 3975 is provided on page 8 of this publication and can be downloaded at www.irs.gov. Form 3975 should be submitted by only one representative for each firm.

Package X, Reference Copies of Federal Tax Forms and Instructions, is sent to each tax professional participating in the Program (upon request). Package X, a two-volume set, and employer tax forms are the only products available to Tax Professionals at no cost. Employer tax forms (Forms W-2, W-3, 1096, 1099 series, etc.) can be obtained by calling 1-800-829-3676 or by mail via Form 7018-A, Employer's Order Blank for 2001 Forms. Additional products are available from SUPDOCS, www.irs.gov, commercial forms providers, or the IRS TaxFax Service.

PRIVACY ACT & PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT NOTICE

The Privacy Act of 1974 and the Paperwork Reduction Act require that when we ask you for information, we must first tell you our legal right to ask for the information, why we are asking for it, and how it will be used. We must tell you what could happen if we do not receive it and whether your response is voluntary, required to obtain a benefit, or mandatory under the law.

As a member of the Tax Professional's Program, your response is voluntary to obtain a benefit: the tax items and tax information offered via this distribution program. If you do not submit the requested information, we may not honor your application to maintain your participation in the Tax Professional's Program.

The time needed to complete Form 3975 will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is 3 minutes.

You are not required to provide information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Internal Revenue Code section 6103.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to:
